LOOK OUT FOR FIRE!

To Theater Owners, Managers and Whom it May Concern:

This is to certify that I have equipped the Windsor theater in this city with the Lindgren stationary chemical fire engines. After examining all other systems of fire protection, and after repeated tests of the Lindgren stationary chemical fire engine, and upon the recommendation of the insurance underwriters, I have no hesitation in pronouncing it the cheapest and most powerful, as well as perfect, fire protection for theaters ever invented. In my opinion every theater and opera house in the United States, as well as Europe, should be equipped with these chemical fire engines, and thus save the loss of life and thousands of dollars in property.

Respectfully,

(Signed) H. L. GOLDY,
Owner Windsor Theater, Chicago, Ill.

See What a Practical Fireman Says.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 19, 1889.

To Whom it May Concern:

This is to certify that I, George A. Burbank, witnessed the exhibition of the Lindgren chemical engine test to-day, and as I have witnessed a great many such chemical tests in New York City, Boston, Mass., and other large cities in the East, I hereby state that it was the quickest and most satisfactory test, and was also pronounced so by two of our councilmen and all the citizens present, and I will also state that the time of applying the chemical was left entirely to me and I did not give the word until the fire was well started, for in other tests I have witnessed they have always put the chemical on the minute the fire was started and water would answer but as well, as there was nothing but the flame started and the wood not charred, and I take great pleasure in recommending the "Lindgren" as far superior to any other "Chemical" engine on the market.

(Signed) GEORGE A. BURBANK,
Secretary Paid Fire Department.

Director of the Northwestern Fire Association. Was last year Secretary of the Northwestern Fireman's Association.

The above engines are made in one, three and five-gallon sizes for hand use; sixty-gallon single tank on two wheels, two eighty-gallon tanks on four wheels, sixty, one hundred, three hundred and five hundred-gallon stationary; other sizes made to order.

SKIN CANCER.

Several years ago I was called to see a colored woman who had a malignant form of cancer on her foot. The cancer grew worse under the prescribed treatment, and the toes and one side of the foot were at length eaten entirely away. The patient could not have survived much longer, but I commenced the use of Swift's Specific, and it cured her sound well. That was three years ago and there has been no return of the disease. I regard Swift's Specific a most excellent medicine for blood diseases, as its tendency is to drive out the poison.

THERE WAS RIVALRY.

Washington Wanted the Internal Revenue Collectorship,

BUT COMPROMISED ON DEPUTIES

Hermann Introduces the Wallula Land Grant Chestnut.

HARRISON WILL TAKE A REST, TOO

No More Federal Appointments for the New States Until After the 6th of January—A Disappointment.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—[OREGONIAN office, corner Fourteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue.—There was some rivalry between Oregon and Washington over securing the internal revenue collectorship for the district of Oregon. Washington felt that this office has gone to the southern half of the district long enough. There were candidates from Washington indorsed by the two senators, but Oregon won when Milton Wiedler, was appointed. Arthur A. Putnam, of Tacoma, had a fighting chance, and Congressman Wilson had recommended H. W. Fairweather, who had not announced himself a candidate. When Wiedler was appointed, as a compromise measure, Senators Dolph and Mitchell, of Oregon, agreed to give the two deputy collectorships to Washington, and thus preserve peace in the family from the far West.

Representative Hermann has submitted to congress a series of resolutions, passed by the Oregon legislature, urging the forfeiture of the Northern Pacific railroad grant between Wallula and Portland, Or. The resolutions recite the various difficulties which this grant puts in the way to the development of the country. Senator Dolph and Representative Hermann are confident that such a measure as the above will become a law early in the session.

Curt Abraham of Roseburg, Or., has been appointed postal agent between Portland and Airlie on that line of railway.

The president is going to get as much of a holiday, while congress has its three weeks of recess, as he can. The announcement is made from the White house that appointments to federal positions need not be expected until after January 6, when the two houses come together again. If this applies to the new states it will leave a somewhat unusual condition of affairs. Montana, Washington and North Dakota have been full fledged states for two months, and as yet there are no federal courts organized in them. No judges have been appointed or other officials under the judges. This, however, is due to the fact that recommendations have not been made by the senators and congressmen here. In fact the delegations from the new states seem to be bothered about a choice of candidates more than those in old states. Oregon's delegation set an example on Thursday last by holding a conference and presenting a unanimous front in a complete list of presidential appointments. The senators from Washington and North Dakota have had consultations, but have not sent in recommendations. The candidates are many from both states. The candidates from Montana are waiting for the election of senators.

Senators Squire and Allen, of Washington, and Dolph and Mitchell, of Oregon, will remain in the city most of the recess. Senator Pierce, of North Dakota, has gone to the Northwest. Congressman Carter, of Montana is preparing his argument for the committee on ways and means on the subject of ores and minerals. He said to-day: "I shall urge that the tariff remain as it is for the most part. The clause relating to lead ores I would have so amended as to impose a tariff on lead in whatever combination it may be found."

The reported quarrel between the president and Speaker Reed is entirely without foundation. The speaker denies the story in an unqualified manner. Reed has not been for some time on very good terms with the Maine senators, and they desire another person appointed, but he has no quarrel with the president.

The retention of Congressman McKenna of California on the census committee, is regarded by his friends as important politically, from the fact that either that committee or the one on the elections of the president and congress will be charged with the reapportionment under the census of 1890, and as all matters passed by the Pan-American and maritime congress will go to the foreign affairs committee Morrow's retention on it is a matter of importance. All the California members are intensely pleased with the recognition accorded to the state. Congressmen Clunie and Biggs say the republicans have done splendidly by them and that the credit of recognition accorded the minority is due to the majority. The delegation has worked in harmony and has secured representation on nearly all leading committees for the first time in the history of the state.

Senator Stanford yesterday made his customary Christmas present of $5 to each page in the senate.

There has been a hitch in the Chinese transit bonds. The instruments were printed, but a halt has been called, the California delegation demanding a hearing. There is now a doubt whether Secretary Windom will approve of the bond. The bond calls for $200 for each Chinaman.

A UNIFORM BANKRUPTCY LAW.

Provisions of the Bill Introduced in the House by Congressman Taylor.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The principal features of the bill introduced in the house on Friday by Congressman Taylor, to enact a uniform bankruptcy law, are as follows

United States courts are declared to be courts of bankruptcy. The offices of referee—that is, assistant judge—and trustee, who is the representative of the creditors, have been created. A debtor must owe $500 or more before he or she can become a bankrupt. The act does not apply to municipal, charitable and religious associations, wage workers, persons engaged exclusively in raising agricultural products, or national banks. All other persons, firms and corporations may take advantage of its provisions. The referee is paid out of the national treasury and not out of the assets.

Bankruptcy officers are all interested in expediting business. The clerk receives a filing fee of $10 in advance. The referee receives, in addition to his salary of $1,000, $10 for each case disposed of after the records have been returned to the clerk. The trustee receives a commission upon the actual dividends paid out, and hence all of them are interested in winding up estates as rapidly as their best interests will permit. Expenses of administration will not be paid, or allowed, until they have been reported in detail, under oath, and allowed by the court.

The United States district attorney may be required by the court, upon application of creditors, to attend the first meeting of creditors and examine the bankrupt concerning the amount and whereabouts of his assets, the conducting of his business, and all matters pertaining to the administration of the estate. If it be found that fraud has been perpetrated by either the bankrupt or the persons with whom he has dealt, it is the duty of the district attorney to lay the matter before the grand jury and to prosecute such persons as may be indicted.

The same officer may in like manner be required to appear at the hearings of bankrupts for their discharge and to oppose the granting of the same. This provision of the bill is new and is designed to facilitate the prosecution of fraudulent bankrupts, dishonest creditors, and defaulting officers. Great care has been taken in the provisions relating to the discharge of the bankrupt, to the end that all honest men may be relieved from their indebtedness and that all dishonest men may be debarred from receiving their discharge. Discharges may be set aside, if fraudulently obtained, upon application made within two years.

Trustees who default, or are removed for malfeasance or misfeasance, may be deprived of all compensation. When there are successive trustees in the same estate, they collectively receive but a single compensation. The death of a bankrupt will not interfere with the administration of the estate. The exemptions of the bankrupt will be the same as under the laws of the state in which he lives at the time of the filing of the petition. Controversies may be adjusted by agreement, arbitration, compromise or litigation.

Claims may be proved by the affidavit of the creditor. They will be allowed as of course, if objections are filed an allowance will be set aside and a hearing will be had as to the merits of the case. Dividends will be paid as soon as the cash in the hands of the trustee will warrant it, and as often thereafter as the best interests of the estate will permit. Notices will be published in designated new papers. Cash will be deposited in a bank or banks chosen by the courts. They will give bonds for the safekeeping and return of funds. Money can be paid out by trustees only upon check or draft. All officers handling money will be required to give ample bonds.

THAT WHISKY PUNCH.

The Temperance Fanatics Still Insist That Mrs Harrison Brewed It.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Mrs. Harrison is deluged with letters about that historical "whisky punch," which she did not give to the Pan-American delegates a few months ago, but which many temperance fanatics are bound to believe she did. A specimen letter recently received by Mrs Harrison, runs like this:

"Can it be possible that the contents of this slip of paper is true? I cut it out of a little paper called the Journal. I could not bring myself to think it true. But if it be, then, Mrs. Harrison, stop and think of what an awful mistake you have made by putting the bottle in our neighbors' mouths. Just to think that you will your honored husband, were placed at the head of our nation, for what purpose? Was it, oh, was it, to deal out death and damnation to your fellow beings who, with yourself, were created? Alas, I feel as if the name of Harrison was polluted. I had a dear brother of that name who would have died for the cause of temperance. I am glad he is not alive to know such an awful disgraceful act took place in the executive mansion. Look back at the lovely example Mrs. Hayes left you, and in the name of God, who has said, "Ba ye clean who bear the vessels of the Lord?" and in the name and for the sake of suffering, do, oh do let it be the last. Pardon me, if you consider my language too severe, but you know nothing of the real, intense agony which mothers, wives and children endure by this awful traffic. Will you, oh will you, still continue to make drunkards while you read in you Bible that no drunkards shall enter the kingdom of heaven? I leave this with you. Take it to the Lord in prayer. I am your friend. (Signed). MRS. —.

HAIL, MALIETOA, KING OF SAMOA!

Triumph of American Diplomacy in Restoring Peace to the Islands.

APIA, Samoa, Dec. 7.—[Per steamer Alameda to San Francisco, Dec. 22.]—King Malietoa has at last been formally recognized as ruler of Samoa by the consuls of the United States, Great Britain and Germany. About a month ago the consuls issued a proclamation declaring that the Berlin conference had agreed to recognize Malietoa as King, and advising the natives to acknowledge him as such. Tamasese replied by saying that his followers were willing that such a course should be taken. Malietoa and Mataafa agreed to the suggestion, and the native chiefs of the island also signed a document, acknowledging Malietoa as king.

Accordingly, on December 5, Malietoa's flag was hoisted on the site of the old government house and the United States man-of-war Adams fired a salute of twenty-one guns in its honor. The German war ship Sophie, which was also lying in the harbor, did not fire a salute. The consuls held a conference on the same evening and issued a proclamation declaring that the governments of the United States, Great Britain and Germany from this time recognize Malietoa as king of Samoa. The proclamation also advised the two native parties which have been hitherto opposed to each other to effect an ultimate reconciliation as soon as possible and contribute to peaceable management of the new Samoan government. The proclamation was printed in the English and Samoan languages and posted in various places of the island.

The opinion is generally expressed that this action on the part of the three consuls is the ultimate settlement of the Samoan difficulty.

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT.

A Yale Freshman From Idaho Elopes With a Pretty New Haven Girl.

NEW HAVEN Conn., Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.—Richard H. Johnson, of Boise City, Idaho, has caused quite a sensation in society here by eloping with a young lady. Johnson is a student in the Freshman class of Yale and is only 18 years old. One day last September, as Johnson was walking up the street he met Kitty Ashdown. It was with him a case of love at first sight, and he strained every nerve to obtain an introduction. He wished to marry Kitty at once, but she was coy and pretended indifference. Then he began to pay particular attention to one of Kitty's girl friends. This ruse worked and Kitty began trying to cut out her friend, and succeeded. Young Johnson and Kitty took the train for Wallingford last Sunday night, where they were married by a justice of the peace. Johnson has changed his boarding place. His young wife is living with her parents for the present, and what action will be taken by the young husband's parents remains to be seen. As it is against the rules of Yale for a student to marry while passing through college, young Johnson will be expelled, which may tend to complicate matters seriously at his home.

OUR NAVY ABROAD.

Admiral Walker's Squadron Reaches Portugal—The Yorktown Still Out.

LISBON, Dec. 22.—The man-of-war Yorktown, of the United States squadron, had not arrived here up to noon to-day. Admiral Walker reports that the non-arrival is due to severe weather. The Chilean exchange salutes with the land batteries, and Admiral Walker paid an official visit to the Portuguese officers. The squadron will remain for ten days and will then go to the Mediterranean.

NO SYMPATHY FOR THE YORKTOWN.

The squadron has behaved admirably. The vessels made the voyage under an easy head of steam in order to economize coal. No anxiety is felt for the Yorktown. Admiral Walker gives her two days in which to arrive. He thinks she may have put into Royal or possibly has met with a slight mishap. While anchoring, the Chilean snapped her chain and lost her best anchor. All the vessels showed good speed and coal endurance. The crews are well.

Too Many Requests for Charitable Contributions in New York.

NEW YORK Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—Ex-President Cleveland says he would like to assist all worthy institutions, but his finances will not permit him to do so. A solicitor for aid in behalf of the women's hospital of this city called upon President Cleveland yesterday and informed him that the use of his name as one of the contributors in support of the hospital would be an excellent help to the institution. Cleveland said that all other applicants used the same arguments. He said he would consult Mrs. Cleveland about this particular request. Then he added, significantly: "The touch of the matter is that the demands which are constantly made upon me for aid are so numerous and come from so many quarters that I have about made up my mind to leave New York in order to get away from these requests."

A CARNIVAL OF CRIME

Horrible Butchery of a Whole Family by the Father.

THREE CHILDREN, ONE A BABY

The Poor Wife Makes a Desperate but Unavailing Fight.

A CALIFORNIA FATHER'S DEED

Too Drunken and Shiftless to Care for His Children He Shoots His Daughter and Fails to Kill Himself.

NILES, Cal., Dec. 22.—The community was startled this evening by the discovery of one of the most wholesale and bloody butcheries that has ever occurred in this section of the state. The victims, five in number, are Charles Shelar, and wife, and three children, and the crime is supposed to have taken place at an early hour this morning. When the inhuman deed was discovered at 5 o'clock this evening, all five bodies were stiff and cold in death, with their throats cut from ear to ear. Shelar and his wife were lying together across the foot of the bed, and the three children were on the floor in different parts of the house. Shelar of late drank heavily, and it is rumored that he and his wife did not live happily. The theory advanced is, that Shelar, in a fit of madness, cut the throats of his wife and children and then his own. Shelar purchased a razor on Saturday evening.

Kittie McKay, a little sister of the murdered woman, came to the discovery of the tragedy. She went to the house to deliver some milk, as usual, and was unable to gain admittance. Charles Mossman was in the vicinity, and she told him about it. He went with her to the rear of the house, and finding the door open, entered. The first door of the house was deserted, but a terrible sight met their eyes in the second story. The dead baby was on the floor in one room, two murdered children with gaping, bloody throats lay in their bed in another chamber, while the murderer and his wife lay dead upon their own couch. It appeared that the wife was the first victim and that she made a desperate fight for her life. The broken handle of the razor was found by her side. Then came the bloody slaughter of the children. The murderer then, apparently took a lamp, went to the mirror, and deliberately cut his own throat, and staggering to where his wife lay, threw himself upon her body. The scene of the tragedy was sickening. Niles is intensely excited, and strong men who viewed the bodies turned faint and rushed into the open air, while women had to be borne out of the house. The only theory advanced thus far as to the cause of the crime is insanity.

MURDERED IN COLD BLOOD.

A Father Stabs His Daughter Through the Heart, Then Cuts His Throat.

SAN JOSE, Dec. 22.—William Eubanks, a widower, aged about 45 years, this morning at about 10 o'clock went to the kitchen door of the Leth house at Los Gatos, where his daughter Ada, 16 years of age, was employed, and shot her through the heart with the contents of one barrel of a shotgun, she falling and dying instantly. He turned the other barrel on himself and also fell, but it was subsequently ascertained suffered no injury. He then went into an adjoining saloon, and after taking a drink of liquor, went up stairs and gashed his throat from ear to ear with a razor, but did not cut deep enough to endanger his life, the wound being promptly dressed. A letter scrawled in a memorandum book in his pocket announces his intention to kill himself and his daughter, stating that he can not get along on her account, and on that of his children. An hour before the shooting he had been reproached by his wife for his treatment of the children, and this may have prompted the act. The murdered girl left her father's house six weeks ago to escape abuse, and had since worked in the house where she was killed. Los Gatos people all give the girl an excellent reputation for industry and other good qualities and say her father's only ground for complaint was that she insisted on using her slender earnings for the support of her younger brothers and sisters in place of giving them to him to squander for whisky.

In an interview with jail Eubanks said he did not want to live because of the girl's immorality. He explained his failure to shoot himself by saying that he must have put both charges of shot in one barrel. His wife died, two years ago. He is a laborer, and is said to be strongly addicted to the use of liquor.

AN INHUMAN SKIPPER.

Sailors Tell a Story of Cruelty at the Hands of Their Ship's Officer.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—When the American ship Robert L. Belknap dropped anchor this morning off Bedloe's island, after a long passage from San Francisco, a half dozen sailors jumped into a small boat and hurriedly pulled to the Battery. They were greatly excited, and seemed glad to be liberated from the clipper, which they characterized as the "worst" they ever sailed in. They stated that the first mate had been in irons for nearly two months. While off Cape Horn the mate quarreled with a seaman, and the latter was thrown overboard by him and drowned. The mate was considered a severe character, and never allowed the forecastle hands any peace while he was at liberty. He often picked quarrels with the men and maltreated them on the slightest provocation. The Belknap is under command of Captain Staples, who is considered a fine master and has been in the habit of carrying on with brutal officers. The vessel left New York a year ago for San Francisco, and on arrival at the Golden Gate her crew told a pitiful story of cruelty on the part of the captain and officers. The Belknap is considered the finest clipper in the American fleet.

WHITES VS. NEGROES AGAIN.

A Fight Between a White Man and a Negro Brings on a Race War.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 22.—Meager reports have been received of a riot in progress at Peots' Camp, Miss., sixty-five miles from Memphis. The trouble was precipitated by a fight between a white man and a negro, in which the latter was worsted. He went out from town, collected a party of friends and returned to clean out the victor. The whites rallied and a fight ensued, in which half the people were wounded but none killed. The latest advices were that everybody was in arms, and further trouble is expected.

LATER.—Advices this evening state that three of the negroes were arrested and lynched. About 11 o'clock an unsuccessful attempt was made to release the prisoners, by the blacks, when a riot ensued, and two negroes, Tom McGhee and Henry Starks were killed outright, and another negro seriously, shot. Trouble originated about the ownership of a dog. Rumors are afloat of squads of negroes collecting in the country, but they lack confirmation.

HE INVITED HIS FATE.

A Man In Quits His Former Wife and Is Fatally Stabbed.

PENSACOLA Dec. 22.—J. M. Thompson and J. T. Carter, both prominent citizens, engaged in a fight in the street yesterday, in which Carter was stabbed and killed. The story of the crime concerns Mrs. Thompson, who was the divorced wife of Carter. Carter failed to properly provide for her support. A year ago she married Thompson. Since then Carter has repeatedly insulted her. Yesterday while Thompson and his wife were walking on the street Carter passed, applying to Mrs. Thompson as he brushed by her an objectionable epithet, which her husband resented. The two men exchanged and the stabbing followed. Public sentiment is strongly with Thompson.

THROUGH TO SALT LAKE

The Union Pacific Widening Its Narrow Gauge.

CLOSE CONNECTION WITH PORTLAND

A Saving of Six Hours on Passenger Travel and a Whole Day on Freight Shipments.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—A local paper says: Another instance of the enterprise of the Union Pacific Company was learned at the local offices yesterday. At present the company has a narrow gauge line from Ogden to Pocatello, which prevents trains from Portland running into Salt Lake without making a detour of over 100 miles. Last week contracts were let for broad-gauging this line. Not only will this change overcome the difficulty referred to, but cars can then be run straight through from Salt Lake to Helena and Butte, Mont., as well as from San Francisco over the Central Pacific to the same places. At present a change of cars is absolutely necessary, and freight has to be transferred from narrow gauge to broad gauge cars, or vice versa.

The contract has been let to Kilpatrick & Collins, and work is to be commenced at once. When completed a saving of at least one day will be made on freight shipments, and of six hours on passenger travel.

MEXICAN RAILROAD AFFAIRS.

The Loan for Construction of Roads Negotiated—English Capital Coming In.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—Announcement of the success of the Mexican loan has created considerable excitement. The press took up the question and demanded an explanation from the government which has been denying that the negotiations for the loan were on foot. Now the official gazette says that it is true the government negotiated the loan, but that it is intended for the construction of the Tehuantepec railroad. The loan was placed in different European money centers, and in Germany it was taken ten times over. On the Monterey and Gulf railroad work is progressing rapidly. Officials of the Mexican railroad (to Vera Cruz) say that the Inter-Oceanic railroad is not hurting their business. An English company recently made an offer for the government telegraph lines, which was refused. The same company now bids for the concession of the line to the Guatemalan frontier with franchises through the country east and west. It also proposes to establish lines throughout Central America.

"BRONCHO LIZ" ACQUITTED.

The Killing of Her Recreant Husband Considered Justifiable.

SPOKANE FALLS, Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—The jury in the case of Mrs. Ione Skeels who shot and killed her husband, Charles W. Skeels, in this city the first of last March, brought in a verdict of acquittal after being out forty-eight hours. Previous to her marriage with Skeels, Mrs. Skeels was known as "Broncho Liz." She met Skeels in the Coeur d'Alene mines. Skeels at that time had a wife and two children. He became smitten with "Broncho Liz" and induced her to dress in male attire and accompany him to his father's farm where he introduced her to his family. She worked on the place as a farm hand for several months without her sex being discovered. Skeels then sent her to Choteau, Mont., where he followed her. Subsequently he secured a divorce from his wife and married "Broncho Liz" at Moscow, Idaho, January 2, 1888. He again sent her to Montana, where she remained until February last, when she joined Skeels in this city, where he was in business. He began paying attentions to other women, and on the morning of March 1 his wife learned he was in a building known as "Actors' Flat," where he had spent the night with Frankie Howard, a variety actress. Mrs. Skeels armed herself with a pistol, and proceeding to the building enticed her husband from the room by sending word by a messenger boy that he was wanted at his place of business. As soon as he appeared in the hall she fired three shots, all of which took effect. He died the following day. The trial lasted nine days and excited great interest.

THE BRIDEGROOM'S WRATH.

It Is Now Cooling in the Interior of a Port Townsend Jail.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—Sheriff Kelly, of San Juan county, arrived in this city this morning with Martin Phillips, the bridegroom who shot John Hall and John Graham while they were giving him a charivari last Tuesday night. Hall was shot so seriously that he died at 10 o'clock Friday and was buried to-day at 1 o'clock. Graham is expected to recover.

Phillips had a hearing before Justice Coffett, on Lopez Island, last Tuesday, and was bound over on a charge of attempt to kill those who were engaged in the charivari. Phillips was then taken to Friday harbor and from there to Argyle, and was brought to this city this morning and was placed in the county jail for safe keeping.

The feeling against Phillips is said to be very strong throughout San Juan county, on Lopez Island. Threats of lynching were openly made, but better judgment prevailed, and the law will be allowed to take its course. Mr. Phillips seems to be deeply distressed over the unfortunate affair, and at times talked freely about it. He has always been on the best of terms with both Hall and Graham, and it seems impossible to account for his rash act in this instance.

Martin Phillips has always been highly esteemed by all who knew him. He is a young man of exemplary habits, and has always counted his friends by his acquaintances. His friends will sincerely trust that he will be able to clear himself of this charge, which they seem so much at a loss to account for.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

A Prominent Tacoma Attorney Lying at the Point of Death.

TACOMA, Dec. 22.—Harry J. Huston, deputy district attorney, and a widely known citizen of Pierce county, lies at the point of death from a disorder which creates much interest among the medical fraternity. He tried a case on Friday afternoon and appeared in usual health, excepting a pain in the abdomen, of which he complained. This morning a counsel of physicians informed Mr. Huston that the probabilities were all against his recovery from the "collapse" into which he had sunk. After every effort had failed to revive the heart, Dr. T. F. Smith, assisted by several surgeons, opened the abdomen and found a large and inflamed perforation of the vermiform appendix, an attachment of the lower bowels, caused by a date seed which was extracted. The case is a study to the doctors, owing to the absence of severe distress to the patient. The operation was successfully performed and was considered the only chance, if chance there existed, for life. The crisis is not expected to be passed for twenty-four hours.

Harvey Huston is 32 years of age, a graduate of the high school at Terre Haute, Ind., and of the law department of Vanderbilt university. He has practiced law in this city since 1887, being highly esteemed and successful.

HE MET HIS DEATH.

A Would-Be Homicide Is Killed in Self-Defense by His Son-in-Law.

BUTTE, Dec. 22.—John O'Neill died this morning at the residence of Frank Harris, his son-in-law, by whom he was shot on Saturday night. O'Neill and his wife separated some months ago, Mrs. O'Neill going to Wyoming. She returned on Saturday and went to Harris's house, where her husband sought her, and after abusing her, pulled a pistol and shot at her. Harris had tried to prevent it, but seeing that O'Neill was determined to kill, endeavored to take his weapon from him. O'Neill then fired at Harris but missed him, when Harris drew his weapon and fired two shots, both taking effect. The coroner's jury to-day returned a verdict of justifiable homicide.

DEATH OF AN EX-CONGRESSMAN.

He Was Threatened With Expulsion Thirty Years Ago.

UTICA, N. Y., Dec. 22.—Hon. Orsamus B. Mattison died to-day, aged 84. He was a representative in congress from this district in the thirty-first, thirty-third, thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth congresses. While in congress in 1858-59, Mattison was charged with declaring that a large number of members of congress were purchasable. The affair caused great excitement in congress and throughout the country. A resolution ordering his expulsion was offered in the house, but after a long and bitter debate it was tabled before it could be called up again. Mattison resigned his seat. About this time a number of congressmen and other prominent persons in the National hotel in Washington, were poisoned. It was believed to be a pro-slavery plot to murder President-elect Buchanan, and sent Vice-President Breckinridge. Mattison was one of those poisoned and came very near dying; in fact his health was affected permanently.

THE HOUSE COINAGE COMMITTEE.

The Friends of Silver Strongly Represented—Not Radical, However.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—A special dispatch from Washington, referring to the make-up of the house coinage committee, says the reporter endeavored to learn the leanings of the members, but several of them were out of the city and could not be seen personally. Carter, Bartine, Bland and Joseph are for free coinage of silver. The latter, however, has no vote on the committee, as he is a delegate and not a representative, but his influence will be felt. Williams is said to be a very strong silver man, though not committed to unlimited coinage as yet. Those who believe in silver, though not in free coinage, are Conger, Wickham, Comstock and Taylor. Mutchler is conservative but rather friendly than otherwise. The anti-silver men are Walter, Knapp, Tracy and Wilcox. This is a much stronger silver committee than was anticipated from Reed, and it is reasonable to expect from it legislation of an advanced character.

GRAVEYARD GHOULS.

A Prominent Physician in Washington to Be Tried for Grave Robbery.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Dr. Adams, demonstrator in one of the medical colleges here, will be brought into court to-morrow on a charge of being concerned in grave robbery. On Friday night the police stopped a carriage near the outskirts of the city containing two bodies, one colored and one white. The driver and two other men with the vehicle escaped. The body of the white woman has been identified as that of Mrs. Cheek, the wife of a gentleman living in this city. Her ears had been foully mutilated and her fingers bruised by the force with which the robbers had stripped them of rings in order that they might not be held on the serious charge of larceny if caught with the body. The law here makes no provision for the punishment of grave robbery.

THE SMITH-SLAVIN FIGHT.

It Will Take Place To-day and Will Probably Not Be a Square Contest.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The Herald's London cable says: Slavin left Margate last night, after obtaining bail, and proceeded to the scene of the fight. Smith had already gone. The general impression is that it will not be a square fight. This means that if Smith enters the ring and is getting the worst of it there will be a row, and perhaps blood will be spilled. The betting is 60 to 40 on Slavin.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—It is stated that the fight between Slavin, the Australian pugilist, and Jem Smith will take place to-morrow forenoon at Bruges, Belgium.

NO LONGER A BAPTIST.

Another Case of Robert Elsmere Reported in San Francisco.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—At a congregational meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church it has been decided to extend a call to Rev. William Kincaid, recently pastor of the First Baptist church of San Francisco. Kincaid resigned the pastorate at that church several weeks ago, being convinced that he could no longer preach the doctrine of the Baptist church. Notwithstanding his change of views the congregation opposed separation, and expressed an earnest desire for the continuance of the relations previously existing.

NEWSPAPER CENSORS.

An Editor Must Give Up His Paper or His Church.

ERIE, Pa., Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—Robert Cornell, editor and proprietor of the Sunday Globe, a new publication in this city, has been given the choice of abandoning the publication of his paper or having his name stricken from the roll of members of the First Presbyterian church. Cornell is a very exemplary young man, but recently created a stir in society circles by publishing matters that were offensive, and this is said to be the cause of the threatened expulsion.

ARTIFICIAL VOLCANO IN NEW YORK.

Arrested for Robbing Letters.

DENVER, Dec. 22.—Joseph Woodward, delivery clerk in the Denver postoffice, was arrested last night while attempting to pass a check for $1100, made out in favor of Henry Bohm, a jewelry dealer in this city. To-day he confessed that he had taken the check from an immediate delivery letter addressed to Bohm. The postoffice officials say that this kind of robbery has been going on for some months. Another arrest is expected to be made to-morrow.

BUFFALO Dec. 22.—Warren F. Hedstrom, mailing clerk in the postoffice here, has been arrested for opening letters and destroying their contents. In his pockets were two decoy letters and eight other letters, which had been mailed at Buffalo on Saturday.

California Pioneers.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—The society of California pioneers met yesterday and completed temporary organization. It was decided to retain the temporary chairman, Dr. J. Ward Ellis, as president of the society until January 1st, on which date the first annual banquet will be held and permanent officers elected. It is proposed to admit sons of pioneers to membership.

THE CALIFORNIA RAINS.

A Steady Downpour for the Past Twenty-four Hours.

RIVERS AGAIN RISING RAPIDLY

Still Greater Damage Feared This Time—Some Heavy Losses of Sheep — The Levees Should All Be Rebuilt.

COLUSA, Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—The river stands twenty-five feet above low water mark and is rising fast. It has been raining steadily for twenty-four hours and still continues. This afternoon there was no prospect of clear weather. Nearly all the large landowners on Grand island have suffered losses except A. H. Rose, one of the head men in the reclamation company. The general opinion is that his lands will be flooded if the high winds now blowing continue many more hours.

At Princeton, fifteen miles above here, the Sacramento river lacks only two feet of being as high as at any previous period.

HEAVY LOSSES OF SHEEP.

RED BLUFF, Dec. 22—[Special Telegram.]—It rained in torrents last night and to-day a terrific wind and rain storm prevailed, the worst of the season. The river is rising again and it is rapidly nearing the sixteen-foot mark. Stockmen claim to have sustained heavy losses of sheep, and if the rain continues the loss will be equal to that of '77 and '78.

STILL RAINING HARD.

MARYSVILLE, Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—There has been a heavy down-fall of rain in this city since morning. It is still raining. The rivers are about at a standstill, but are expected to rise during the night.

A STEAMER ON A RANCH.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—While on the way from San Francisco to this city last night, the steamer Modoc got into a terrific current and was swept through the broken levee of the Sacramento river on to the Payne ranch. The passengers were badly scared and feared they would be dashed to death against the buildings and trees. The boat was unable to back out. Finally a rope was made fast to a tree and the pilot succeeded in turning her around when she managed with difficulty to reach the main channel again.

THE RAIN STILL FALLING.

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Dec. 22—Rain fell here the most of last night and the greater part of to-day. The Yuba river has risen about six inches this afternoon and is still rising about an inch an hour. Snow fell last night to the depth of from six to ten inches within ten miles east of this city.

TO REBUILD THE LEVEES.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 22.—P. A. Humbert, one of the civil engineers who inspected the break in the levee at Payne's ranch, has made a report to the governor, in which he says the opening can easily be repaired in its present stage, and no time should be lost in doing so, as obstructions may form in the main channel which will impede navigation. He is of the opinion that the levee system along the river is not properly constructed, and that congress should provide at once for rebuilding them.

A TEMPESTUOUS VOYAGE.

The Steamer Brittanic Meets a Terrific Gale Lasting Five Days.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—The steamer Brittanic arrived this morning after a tempestuous voyage of eight days from Liverpool. She presented a battered appearance externally and her red funnels were encrusted with brine. During the storm which lasted five days everything moveable was swept from the decks and the terrific waves crushed a section of the bridge on the starboard side. Two of her life boats were stove in. Two sailors were thrown against the gunwale and seriously injured.

EXPERIENCE OF OTHER VESSELS.

BOSTON, Dec. 22.—The steamer British Empire arrived to-day from London. She reports a tempestuous voyage. On the 15th inst. a tremendous sea broke on board, doing great damage. Quartermaster Smith, who was on deck at the time, was thrown down and severely injured.

The brig Screamer, which arrived to-day from Pascagoula reports that on November 28, First Mate Boyard was washed overboard and drowned.

WORK OF THE STORM KING.

A Cyclone Sweeps Over a Kentucky Town Doing Great Damage.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 22.—The town of Pineville, Ky., was visited by a destructive storm of wind and rain early this morning. Several dwellings and three business houses were swept away by a cyclone which passed through the country town. Grant and James North, brothers, received serious injuries. These were the only ones hurt although several people had miraculous escapes. The loss is estimated at about $50,000.

A MIDWINTER THUNDER STORM.

The Singular Phenomenon That Visited Buffalo, N. Y.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—This city was visited by a singular phenomenon, a midwinter thunder storm early this morning. The thunder peals were terrific and the lightning almost continuous. The wind blew at the rate of sixty miles per hour. Several small buildings partially collapsed and other slight damage was done.

SAN FRANCISCO WHEAT CHARTERS.

Few Vessels in Port, but Tonnage of a Great Fleet Is Engaged.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—Wheat charters have been closed for the only available wooden ships in port. They are the Don Nicolas, J. D. Peters and Malay. The Peters may go into the grain trade, but has of late been in the coal trade. The others are coal vessels. Two wooden vessels arrived from Italy yesterday under charter to load barley for Australia.

There have been no barley shipments this month. Recently 8000 tons of rye was sold for export to Europe. Small shipments of this grain to Europe occured a few years ago.

The only free iron ships in port are the Annie Johnson, Kenilworth, Phasis and Seafarer. The last-named arrived from Australia yesterday, and the Phasis only commenced to discharge cargo a few days ago. The Kenilworth was damaged by fire last October and will need extensive repairs. The Annie Johnson is practically out of the wheat trade. The only disengaged vessels in port at this writing suitable for the wheat trade are the Phasis and Seafarer, and both of these can get 37s 6d for Cork. There is only one free vessel at lower coast ports, and that is the Hecla, which arrived at San Diego on the 17th, from Baltimore.

Fortunately, exporters are well supplied with tonnage, and there is a considerable amount due. There are now fifty-four vessels in port under engagements to take grain. These register 85,000 tons and will take 140,000 tons. This is the largest engaged fleet in a long time. The list includes thirty-three prior to arrival charters. If exporters did not take another vessel, they have tonnage enough to carry them to the 1st of February.

LATEST NEWS FROM AUSTRALIA.

Particulars of Sickness and Death of Henry E. Searle—A Severe Hailstorm.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21.—[Special Telegram.]—Australian papers, which arrived by steamer yesterday, contain particulars of the sickness and death of Henry E. Searle, the champion single sculler of the world. From reports in the Sydney Star, it seems that Searle left England with Neil Matterson, the English champion oarsman. When they reached Colombo, Ceylon, where the steamer stops about a day, Searle was induced to take a hand in a game of cricket. He was warned of the danger of exercising without proper protection for his head in the sun, but he refused a pith helmet and havelock and played in a simple skull cap. In a short time he became faint and dizzy, and a doctor declared that he was suffering from an unusually severe case of sunstroke. He was removed to the ship and everything possible was done for him, but typhoid fever set in and he was very low during the voyage. Arriving at Adelaide he was placed, as it was deemed best, in the new sanitarium at Williamstown near Melbourne. There he seemed better for a few days, but in the relapse he died. Toward the end the disease changed to enteric fever. The doctors attributed his death directly to the sunstroke at Colombo.

A RAINY SEASON.

In all parts of New South Wales the season has been very wet, the dryest place in the colony having received twenty-one inches of rain. In the Moulamein district four inches of rain fell in one hour. The hay crops have suffered and harvest operations have been hindered. The damp weather has, in many districts, brought rust to the wheat, thus spoiling the crop, which otherwise would have been the largest known for many years. It still bids fair, however, to be up to the average.

HAILSTONES AS LARGE AS CRICKET BALLS.

A South special of November 26 to the Sydney Herald says: The weather for the last few days has been intensely hot, the thermometer reaching over 100 in the shade. At about noon to-day a heavy storm could be seen rising from the south. At 2:30 o'clock the wind blew very hard for a few minutes, when the largest hailstones ever seen in this district commenced to fall. During the storm chunks of ice as large as cricket balls fell in the street. Nearly every window in the town was broken, and almost every sheet of iron in Matthew's ball is perforated with holes. The courthouse, Royal hotel, Telegraph hotel and all buildings covered with iron roofs were perforated by the falling hailstones. A number of dogs and other animals about town were killed during the storm. Gardens in town are stripped of every vestige of fruit and leaves. Fully five inches of rain fell within a half hour.

THE PRACTICE OF CANNIBALISM.

The Sydney Herald contains a letter from Captain Woodhouse, who has charge of the trading schooner, the Emma Fisher, which gives brief particulars of the perpetration of further atrocities on traders and the practice of cannibalism by the natives of one of the Solomon islands. The Emma Fisher had fallen in company with the schooner Enterprise, from which it was gleaned that a boat-steerer on board the Enterprise, named Nelson, had been killed and eaten, together with three others, natives. Nelson is given as a native of Norway. It appears the natives came off near Rubiana, in the Solomon group, and represented they wanted to dispose of some copra. Nelson and three of the native crew on board the Enterprise were thus induced to land in the schooner's boat and proceeded to the village. While in the act of stooping to pick a handful of copra up Nelson was felled by a blow on the back of the head from an ax or tomahawk and before his companions could regain the boat they were similarly massacred. It is reported the bodies were then roasted and eaten.

Captain Cable, a shipmaster trading out of Sydney, says skull hunting is as rife as ever with many of the tribes. Cannibalism, according to all that can be gleaned, still exists to a terrible extent and the cruelty and barbarism still perpetrated by the natives amongst their own people is reported to be almost incredible at some of the islands in the Solomon group.

THE LOST ONE FOUND.

Henry R. Knapp's Mysterious Disappearance—He Is Found in This City.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—Henry R. Knapp, the art publisher, who so mysteriously disappeared two weeks ago, has returned. Knapp left home on the afternoon of the 8th inst., to visit his physician, Dr. D'Ancona, for treatment of a pain in his head. He failed to find the doctor in, and from the moment he left the office he was completely lost to his friends. At the end of a week his wife had given him up for lost and commenced preparations for returning to her friends in the East. The matter was placed in the hands of Detective John Curtin. That gentleman traced Knapp to the ferry-boat about the hour for the departure of the Oregon express. Notices were sent to his connections along the northern route, and one that landed in Portland, Or., bore fruit. Detective Sullivan, Curtin's Portland agent, telegraphed that Knapp had arrived in Portland on the Tuesday following his disappearance, and had applied for work at Thiel's Detective Agency. His manner at the time was that of a man laboring under mental aberration.

On last Wednesday Dr. D'Ancona received a dispatch from the missing one, reading as follows:

PORTLAND, Or., Dec. 18.

A. D. D'Ancona, 215 Montgomery Street, San Francisco:—How is my wife? Send me $50 to come home on. H. R. KNAPP.

This dispatch was given to Detective Curtin, who wired Sullivan, at Portland, to hunt Knapp up. Sullivan obeyed orders and soon decided that Knapp's mind was affected, and that he was not in a fit condition to travel alone. He accordingly started him in charge of one of his operators and the pair arrived here yesterday.

Knapp says he is totally unable to account for his presence in Portland, or how he got there. He said in a lucid moment on the train that everything was a blank to him from the time he left Dr. D'Ancona's office on Sunday evening until he came to himself in Portland on Tuesday. On leaving Portland he seemed rational, but as the train neared this city he again lost his mental poise and became almost raving. He seems to be suffering from two hallucinations. One of them is, that he had killed Dr. D'Ancona on the occasion of his visit to the doctor's office, and the other, that he was sandbagged and robbed near his office. He persists that he had $820 in his pocket-book, and that it was taken by his assailants.

THE $10,000 BANDIT.

An Anecdote Showing the Coolness of Lone Highwayman Williams in a Tight Place.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—As an instance of the coolness of Williams, the recently captured lone highwayman, Captain Lees recites an incident which occurred the night after Williams succeeded in robbing the Redding and Weaverville stage. Williams was pursued by a constable and posse, consisting of armed bands, and was surrounded by the posse which commenced firing at him with shotguns. He promptly returned the fire, and during a lull in the firing looked about him and shouted to his imaginary confederates, whom the posse believed were concealed in ambush, to defend themselves.

"Kill the fellows off," shouted Williams, as he commenced banging away at his pursuers, who took to their heels and left Williams in possession of the place. Williams left his gun and traps in the road and made tracks for some safer place. Among his traps was some underclothing. Captain Lees and associates argued that it could only have been purchased in a large city, and detective work began at that point, with the result already published.

The rewards for Williams's capture, offered by the Northern districts, are to the amount of over $10,000. Williams was turned over to the United States marshal. He will be tried for robbing the mails on the Weaverville stage. He has nothing to say about his crimes or capture.

A CHINAMAN KILLED.

The Homicide Surrenders and Says the Killing Was Accidental.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 22.—A Chinaman named Ah Jim came to Sacramento to-day and surrendered to the sheriff, saying he had shot and killed another Chinaman at Foster's ranch, on Sutter island, near Courtland. The tragedy took place on Friday afternoon and the victim lived until 8 o'clock that night. Ah Jim explains that the killing was purely accidental.

"Aida" will be presented this week at the Tivoli opera house. The opening of the Bijou opera house proved a failure and the company has disbanded.

Escaped From Alcatraz Island.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—August Koster and Frank Bennett, the former serving a four years' term for desertion, and the latter seven years for theft, escaped from the United States prison at Alcatraz island early yesterday morning. The prisoners broke the lock on a small boat used about the rock and by means of boards paddled to the shore after two hours' work.

An Antidote to Matrimony.

Boston Courier.

A gentleman who is a confirmed bachelor was being rallied recently by some lady friends upon his obstinate resistance to all attempts to lead him into matrimony.

"I wonder," one of them said, "that any man could escape who has had all the snares laid for him that have been spread for you."

"I should never have been able to preserve my liberty," he answered, "had it not been for a certain window on Winter street."

"A window on Winter street?" What was there in that to preserve you?"

"It was filled with the materials of which the modern woman was made," he returned, with an affectation of gravity. "Whenever I was in any danger of becoming engaged I have simply walked around and looked in at that window, and I have thereby been saved."

THE ILL-FATED SHIP DURHAM

Her First and Second Mates Drowned in San Francisco Bay—Graphic Description of the Futile Efforts at Rescue.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—Charles Stevens, first mate, and Williamson, second mate, of the ill-fated ship Durham, which was damaged by fire at Port Costa last week, and in the hold of which two men were suffocated by foul gases on last Friday, were drowned in the bay this afternoon. Stevens and Higginson, together with four others, started from the ship, which is anchored in the bay, in a small boat for shore. High wind and a strong tide were prevailing at the time, and in attempting to run near a barge anchored in the stream their boat was washed near the anchor chain of the barge and capsized. All the men were thrown into the water, but all managed to secure a hold on the anchor chain except the two mates, who clung to the boat, which drifted away and sank, both men going down with it. Both men are natives of Liverpool, and Higginson leaves a wife and several children in that city.

Boats were sent out to drag the bay for the bodies of the drowned men; but up to a late hour to-night neither of them had been recovered.

BRAVE ATTEMPTS AT RESCUE.

The disaster was witnessed by a number of people. There were several vessels by, and soon three boats were rowing after the two men. The schooner Mountain View got her boat out first, which was quickly followed by one from the schooner Bobolink and a second from the C. T. Hill. The men in the boats realized the danger of Stevens and Higginson and put every energy into their work, pulling like mad for the fast drifting and overturned boat, to which the men were clinging. Nearer and nearer drew the skiff from the Mountain View, and it looked as if she would overtake the unfortunate men. Captain Wentzell, of the schooner, was in the boat himself and he shouted encouragingly at the men from time to time. The bay was exceedingly rough, and the water was as cold as ice. The poor fellows, hanging to the keel, were chilled through and through, and their limbs were numbed with the cold.

"Hold on, boys," shouted Captain Wentzell. Stevens seemed to hear the joyful shout across the stormy waters, for he partly turned towards the approaching boat. At that moment, however, his grip relaxed, his fingers having become stiffened. He made a vain clutch at the keel, but the waves carried the boat beyond his reach and he sank back into the water. His blanched face appeared above the surface for one brief moment, and the water closed over him. When the boat from the Mountain View reached the spot where Stevens had disappeared there was nothing to be seen of him. It was thought he would surely come up to the surface again, but nearly a minute was consumed in a vain search for him.

A feeble cry from Higginson was heard and the three rescuing boats, which were now closely together, put out to his assistance. Higginson had witnessed his shipmate's death and had lost heart. He saw three boats heading for him, saw succor close at hand, and yet was powerless to aid himself. Unable to hold on any longer he sank back into the water, and with a wild, despairing cry, he disappeared from sight, never to rise alive again.

THE VICTIMS OF THE DURHAM.

Funerals Held Yesterday—No Inquiry Into the Sad Accident.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—[Special Telegram.]—Tuesday next, at a special meeting of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, appropriate action will be taken in respect to the memory of Captain John H. Freeman and Frederick Cotton, both of whom were suffocated Friday in the ship Durham.

The bodies of both Captain Freeman and Mr. Cotton were yesterday visited by many friends. The funeral of Captain Freeman took place this afternoon from Masonic Temple, in this city; that of Mr. Cotton from his residence in Oakland.

There has been some talk of an investigation relative to the sad disaster, but it is not likely any can be held. Coroner Taylor has signed the necessary certificates, and considers there is no need of official inquiry on his part, and there is no one else who has power to investigate the occurrence.

THE NOBLE NATURE.

It is not growing like a tree—
In bulk doth make man better be;
Or standing long an oak three hundred year,
To fall a log at last, dry, bald and sere;
A lily of a day
Is fairer far in May,
Although it fall and die that night—
It was the plant and flower of Light.
In small proportions we just beauty see;
And in short measures life may perfect be.
—Ben Jonson.

MAN IS HIS OWN STAR.

Man is his own star; and the soul that can
Render an honest and perfect man
Commands all light, all influence, all fate;
Nothing to him falls early or too late.
Our acts our angels are, or good or ill
Our fatal shadows that walk by us still.
—Beaumont and Fletcher.

Scaly Skin Diseases

Psoriasis 5 years, covering face, head and entire body with white scabs. Skin red, itchy and bleeding. Hair all gone. Spent hundreds of dollars. Pronounced incurable. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

Cured by Cuticura

My disease (psoriasis) first broke out on my left cheek, spreading across my nose and almost covering my face. It ran into my eyes, and my physician was afraid I would lose my eyesight altogether. It spread all over my head, and my hair all fell out, until I was entirely bald-headed; it then broke out on my arms and shoulders, until my arms were just one sore. It covered my entire body, my face, head and shoulders being the worst. The white scabs fell constantly from my head, shoulders and arms; the skin would thicken and be red and very itchy, and would crack and bleed if scratched. After spending many hundreds of dollars, I was pronounced incurable. I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using two bottles CUTICURA RESOLVENT I could see a change; and after I had taken four bottles I was almost cured; and when I had used six bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT and one box of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, I was cured of the dreadful disease from which I had suffered for five years. I thought the disease would leave a very deep scar, but the CUTICURA REMEDIES cured it without any scars. I cannot express with a pen what I suffered before using the CUTICURA REMEDIES. They saved my life, and I feel it my duty to recommend them. My hair is restored as good as ever, and so is my eyesight. I know of a number of different persons who have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and all have received great benefit from their use. MRS. ROSA KELLY, Rockwell City, Calhoun Co., Iowa.

CATARRH HAY FEVER CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

A NEW TREATMENT.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been discovered, which permanently cures the most aggravated cases of these distressing diseases by a few simple applications made (two weeks apart) by the patient at home. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent free by A. H. DIXON & SON, 337 and 339 West King Street, Toronto, Canada.

DESPISED $20 LOTS.

Fifteen years ago I bought some lots over the Sand Hills, back of San Francisco, near what is now Golden Gate Park, for $20 each.

I was laughed at as a lunatic, and advised to buy over the bay at Oakland at $1000 per lot.

Time has revealed the fact that the $20 lots away over the hills were even then, in fact, worth much more than the Oakland lots.

The Oakland lots have doubled in value. The others, 3, 4 and 6 miles out and back from the foot of Market street, now sell for from $3000 to $10,000 per lot.

I learned a lesson from this, namely: Always buy on the business side of the river or bay, and on the highest ground reached by a motor line. It may take time to develop, but as soon as rapid accessible by a cable or motor line, values will bound up to fabulous prices.

West Portland is on the right side of the river; 100 men are working on the motor line. Lots are 50x100 feet, and sell this month for $120; $10 down, and $10 per month. Prices advance to $150 after January 1. Buy this month and make $30. In 2 years these lots will be worth $600 to $3000 each.

Apply at once for a bond.

80 ACRES $120—THE PORTLAND CITY Real Estate Association is selling 608 lots in a "pool" at $120 per lot—$10 down and $10 per month; no interest. Of these 608 lots, 600 of them are West Portland, (50x100 ft. lots (two miles from river front, with motor line under construction) and 8 of them are 80-acre "timber farms," worth now from $2000 to $4000 each. You get one of these 608 lots. Every one has an equal chance of getting 80 acres, as division will be by lot. If you have a mind to get a home or make some money, now is the time to buy. Prices advance positively Jan. 1, 1890. Call at the office and secure a bond at once. Don't wait until prices go up and then get in a row with yourself for negligence. Address T. A. WOOD, room 1, I. MARVELOUS RESULTS

LOSS IN SHRINKAGE OF MEATS.

Very few people know that the Shrinkage of Meats roasted in a close oven is from thirty-five to forty per cent. All meat contains seventy-five per cent. of water and only twenty-five per cent of solid matter, and the loss that is made in the roasting is made in the evaporation of the juices which is the VERY BEST OF MEAT.

Effect of the SOLID OVEN Door.

A TEN pound Sirloin, medium or well-done, will be REDUCED to SIX pounds and four ounces of Roasted Meat, showing a loss of three pounds and twelve ounces of juice. While the loss is 30% per cent of the total weight, it shows the enormous LOSS OF FIFTY PER CENT OF THE JUICE.

Effect of WIRE GAUZE OVEN Door.

A TEN pound Sirloin, medium or well-done, will be reduced to nine pounds and eight ounces of Roasted Meat, showing a loss of eight ounces of juice. While this loss is over one-sixth of the total weight, it shows the very small LOSS OF BUT SEVEN PER CENT OF JUICE

What Scott's Emulsion Has Done!

Over 25 Pounds Gain in Ten Weeks. Experience of a Prominent Citizen.

THE CALIFORNIA SOCIETY FOR THE SUPPRESSION OF VICE, SAN FRANCISCO, July 7th, 1886.

I took a severe cold upon my chest and lungs and did not give it proper attention; it developed into bronchitis, and in the fall of the same year was threatened with consumption. Physicians ordered me to a more congenial climate, and I came to San Francisco. Soon after my arrival I commenced taking Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites regularly three times a day. In ten weeks my avoirdupois went from 155 to 180 pounds and over; the cough meantime ceased. C. R. BENNETT.

SUNNYSIDE

Can make a better showing in good solid improvements than any suburb of Portland of the same age. Over fifty houses completed and occupied and many more contracted to be built at once; lying directly east from the business center of Portland; having an abundance of good water, and being but fifteen minutes from the center of Portland, on a 5-cent fare, all combine in making it the most favored location.

Prices are reasonable and terms very easy. Before buying see

CORVALLIS

Offers better inducements to investors to-day than any city south of Portland in the Willamette valley. Situated at the junction of the Southern Pacific and Oregon Pacific railroads, the head of navigation of the Willamette river, with early completion of the Southern Pacific railroad to Junction City, making the west side the main line to California, and is a distributing point for Brownsville, the timber lands on the Calapooia and the mines in the Cascades back of Brownsville. There will be a free bridge across the Willamette the coming summer, making this a very desirable location for the business man, laborer, mechanic and others who want to live where it is a healthy and stirring place. Job's addition, the most elegant residence property adjoining the city, street railways will be running directly through this addition by March 1st next. Prices of lots are to double in a short time, each purchaser of a lot gets a ticket for a drawing of 5 1-10 acres, good dwelling, orchard, etc. Maps, description and prices of lots or blocks can be had of

PROPOSALS FOR WATER BONDS.

OFFICE OF THE WATER COMMITTEE, CITY OF PORTLAND.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED by me at this office until 3 P. M., Tuesday, December 31, 1889, for the purchase of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) of the bonds of said city, in denominations of One Thousand Dollars ($1000) each, dated January 1, 1887, payable Thirty (30) years from date, and bearing interest at the rate of Five (5) per cent per annum, payable on the first days of January and July of each year. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN U. S. GOLD COIN at the office of the Treasurer of said City.

These bonds are issued under authority of an act of the Legislature of Oregon, approved November 25, 1885, for the construction of Water Works. Said act authorized the issue of $700,000 for that purpose, of which amount $600,000 have been issued. The legality of the act has been affirmed by the Court of Last Resort in the state.

The bonds will be delivered with coupons attached for interest from January 1, 1890.

The proposals will be endorsed on the outside of the sealed envelope "Proposal for Purchase of Water Bonds," and addressed to "Frank T. Dodge, Clerk of the Water Committee, Portland, Oregon."

The right to reject bids is reserved.

By order of the Water Committee.

Best Investment on the Market

A careful investigation of the situation which exists on Bellingham Bay to-day will convince any shrewd man of affairs that the foundation of a great city has been laid at Fairhaven and that the work to that end has begun in earnest. Natural resources (coal, iron, lumber and agriculture) are there in inexhaustible quantities; it has an incomparable harbor; great mills are building; rows of brick buildings, including a magnificent hotel, are being erected; miles of streets are being graded and sidewalks laid; new industries are springing up and new lines of business are being opened every day. Shipping is increasing every hour. People are flocking there by the thousands and the tributary country is settling with phenomenal rapidity. Fairhaven has two railroads building in different directions. The town is, moreover, backed up by a powerful land company that is nursing, building and developing it on liberal and broad gauge principles. Any sagacious person, who will calmly look the situation over, can not fail to recognize the fact that the story of Tacoma is to be repeated at Fairhaven.

EAST FAIRHAVEN ADDITION is less than a mile back of the town and commands a beautiful view of the town and bay. Streets are 80 and 100 feet wide and correspond with the streets of Fairhaven. Donovan avenue, 85 feet wide, is being improved its entire distance, from Fairhaven through East Fairhaven, and planked, and will be the main thoroughfare from Happy Valley and the outlying additions.

Prices of lots, $125 for inside, and $150 for corners, one-third cash.

The G A R post at Asotin opposes the bill to create a soldiers' home which is now pending in the legislature and gives the following reasons Firstly, that we regard that duty as belonging exclusively to the general government of the United States secondly, that the financial condition of the state does not at present justify the expense thirdly that the classes to derive a benefit are either at present provided with pensions, or are not in sufficient numbers to warrant the expenditure of the sum named in said bill fourthly, that to provide a home where all family ties are to be severed by the inmates robs it of the sacred name that should ever surround and make pleasant the declining days of the veteran who has undergone so much that his country might live, For the reasons given the member from Asotin county is requested to vote against the bill

Evarts's Little Joke.

Washington Post

Mr Blaine sat in his private office one day discussing affairs of state with his predecessor, ex Secretary William Maximum Evarts

Now here? said he 'is a case in point This man has been consul at On Hung for twenty years. He went there during the war and has remained there ever since It is time he returned home to be acquainted with his country before he grows a cue If he stays much longer he will have a Chinese bias in his sight I shall remove him at once

"I wouldn't remove him Mr Secretary " replied Mr Evarts

'Why not?'

'I am afraid it will be an unpleasant thing to do '

My mind is made up ' replied Mr Blaine As soon as I can find a good live man to take his place I shall remove him "

But I think you will have grave difficulty in finding a good live man who would be willing to take his place

"I anticipate no such difficulty But will you explain to me Mr Evarts why you think there will be any difficulty ?

' Because his man has been dead and buried these six months, Mr Secretary '

The Burglars Might Doubt Him

Detroit Free Press

A colored man who was evidently in good circumstances called at a Gratiot avenue hardware store the other day and asked for a doorlock, and while he was looking at a line of them the merchant said

"You can't be afraid of burglars?"

"But I am was the reply

"Have you got anything to be stolen ?

"No, sah Hain t got $20 worth of stuff in de house "

"Then why do you fear burglars ? '

' It hain't 'cause I 'spect dey would steal anything but because I doan want to be woke up in the night and see a burglar at de foot of de bed an' hear him say Now Reuben you hand over dat bag of gold or I ll put six bullets into ye '

' But you have no gold "

' Dat's just it He d think I was lyin and shute me '

The Kaiser's Modesty

Paris Letter in St Louis Post Dispatch

Here is an anecdote of the emperor of Germany which is certainly sufficiently characteristic of that pompous personage to be true During one of his forest excursions on the occasion of the late visit of the czar of Russia William II was about to light his cigar but found that he had forgotten the knife that he used to cut off the ends The czar was no better provided, so one of the forest keepers stepped forward and proffered his own The emperor used it and then returned it, saying impressively "Take back your knife It is now a historic relic '

The prejudice which has pervaded the medical profession against articles of a proprietary nature has been largely overcome by Hood s Sarsaparilla which has proven itself a great aid to the profession in many cases. Many physicians now prescribe it in their practice and we take pleasure in presenting the following letter from a well known physician in Bloomington Ill

"I have prescribed Hood s Sarsaparilla in cases where an alterative or blood purifier so-called was needed with the best results, I have also prescribed it in other cases, for indigestion etc with excellent results. PORTLAND'S NEW CITY HALL

The Council Will Probably Decide on the Site To-Night.

Christmas Offerings for the Sick—Early Smelt in the Market—D. P. Thompson as a Mule Skinner—Bases Ball September.

IS ROLLON THE MAN.—There is a man in this city under medical treatment for a bad case of constipation or stricture of the esophagus, brought on by drinking some kind of poisonous whisky to kill microbes. The stuff is some kind of acid which burns and thickens the inner coating of the gullet, and is much more likely to kill a man than a microbe. It might be good for water, but it is bad for men. Just why one would drink such stuff to kill microbes which are in the air is difficult to imagine. It would seem about as sensible to drink it to kill mosquitoes. Probably the confounded stuff has more microbes in a gallon of it than a man is ever likely to get into his system. This is no laughing matter, but it may be stated that good old rye whisky is the best microbe killer yet discovered. If it don't kill the microbes it won't kill the man, unless he drinks too much of it.

THE SHORTEST IN THE YEAR.—Yesterday was the winter solstice, the shortest day in the year, the sun reached his greatest southern declination, and appears to traverse the tropic of Capricorn. We know so little about winter here that the difference in the length of the days is not all the effect we see from the declination of the sun. The days will now begin to grow longer, but there is not much fear of the cold growing stronger, as it does in less favored sections, where the ancient chroniclers resided who wrote the following: Now cometh December, full of cold with frost and snow, with great winds and stormy weather, that seldom may not labor nor nothing. The sun is then at the lowest it may descend. Then the breast of the earth is hid in snow; then is good to hold nigh to the fire, and spend the good gathered in summer.

SOMETHING ABOUT EARLY SMELT.—Mr. James Quinn, formerly a well-known resident of this city, but for years a resident at Quinn's Landing on the lower Columbia, demurs to the statement published in these columns a few days since, to the effect that some Columbia river smelt received here on that day were as the man who caught them claimed the earliest smelt ever sent in the Portland market. Mr. Quinn says he sent fresh Columbia river smelt in his market on Washington street, on the 8th of December, 1869. From this it appears that Mr. Johnson in 1869 was ten days behind Mr. Quinn in 1869, in getting smelt into this market. It is the belief of many fishermen that smelt and chinook salmon both run in the rivers all winter, and could be taken if fished for, but the game would hardly be worth the candle.

THE CITY HALL.—The council meets to-night to vote on the selection of a site for the city hall. The general opinion is that they will choose the St. Helen's hall block. Mr. Gordon, and possibly Mr. Dierdorff block, in that precinct. The St. Helen's hall block is just across Main street in the Third ward, and Mr. Gordon thinks it would not be right to locate the hall in the Third ward, but would be all right to put it in the First. Some favor the block between West Park and Eighth and Yamhill and Taylor streets, which is a very eligible block. As the council meets this evening especially for this purpose they will doubtless settle the matter. It is hardly probable that any of the members expect to please everybody in the selection made.

CHRISTMAS COLLECTION.—According to the notice given yesterday, wagons and collectors will call upon the business men to-morrow for contributions of money and goods for the Good Samaritan hospital. Let all called upon give something, no matter how small, and the aggregate will be a substantial aid to this worthy institution. Every article used in a family will be acceptable here, supplies of all kinds, provisions, groceries, clothing, dry goods, meats and vegetables will be acceptable. Contributions in money will also be appreciated. Those who wish to contribute anything and who are not visited by Sunday, will please notify Dr. J. W. Hill of the Bishop Scott academy by mail or telephone, and he will send for their offerings.

AS A MULE SKINNER.—Some fellow at Oregon City has been furnishing a paper there with a bit of history of the life of Hon. D. P. Thompson. He says Mr. Thompson worked at blacksmithing there one winter when he first came to the country and helped to build the cells in the Oregon City jail. Mr. Thompson acknowledges the corn, and evidently thinks it no disgrace, and as there are living witnesses in Oregon City to the fact that he there shod a whole pack train of 20 mules in three days, another man filing the hoofs. He says they were regular mules, every one of them being able to kick a fly off its ear. There are a number of wealthy citizens in this state who did not begin business by keeping tools.

THE WATER INCANDESCENT LIGHTS.—It is a curious thing for servant girls to refuse a situation because there are too many children in the family, or because there are not stationary washstands, or hot water boiler, or because the wash is not sent out, or for many other reasons; but the latest trouble is the light question. A young woman who wanted a situation refused because coal oil lamps were used, saying she would refuse to them and would not live anywhere where they did not have incandescent lights. This is an age of progress.

A VEHICLE "JUMBO."—All the boxes made in this city during years past have been hauled from factories on express wagons, an inconvenient and troublesome method of handling such bulky articles. Governor Pennoyer has just had built a handsome spring truck with stakes seven feet high for carting boxes from his factory. It had a load Saturday of 1000 quarter boxes for biscuits, containing 2000 feet of lumber and weighing two tons. It is named Jumbo, and is found to be a great improvement on the old style of things.

THE LONE'S TRIAL TRIP.—Captain Buckmann's new steamer, Lone, that has for some time been lying at Weidler's mill, awaiting her machinery, made her trial trip yesterday in a very satisfactory manner. The Lone was named after the captain's wife, and will be put on the route between Portland and the Cascades. She is calculated to attain a speed of twenty miles an hour, making one of the fastest as well as the prettiest steamers on the river.

A NEAT CHURCH.—The congregation of the Fourth Presbyterian church are building a portion of their proposed church on their lot on Post street between Gibbs and Whitaker. The structure is 35x24 feet and is all inclosed and lathed ready for plastering. It will make a very neat and comfortable place for the meetings of the congregation until next summer, when they will build the main church, which is to cost about $20,000.

FIRE RENTING POSTPONED.—Saturday and announcement was made in these columns that pews and sittings in the new Grace Methodist Episcopal church would be rented this (Monday) evening, but time for doing this has been postponed to next Friday evening, when the officers of the society will be at the church to rent to members and attendants the pews and sittings they may desire. There will also be an organ recital.

PORTLAND SPEED ASSOCIATION.—The Portland Speed Association have concluded to have their fall meeting from the 2d of September next to the 9th, inclusive. This will bring the meeting just where the state fair, which begins September 8, and the horses can go right from here to the fair. Many speed associations throughout this section will do well to make a note of the date agreed upon by the Portland association.

HE WAS FROM GOOSE HOLLOW.—A lively row occurred at the corner of Third and B streets late last evening. P. D. Kearney, of Goose Hollow, was struck above the eye with some sharp instrument. He was carried into the St. Paul House on Third street where his wound was dressed. It is not very serious. Four policemen were soon on the scene, but could not ascertain who Kearney's assailant was.

FOR STEALING CHICKENS.—In Justice Tuttle's court Saturday a young man named Frank McDermott was held in bonds of $200 on a charge of stealing two chickens. The defendant, not having the requisite amount of money, was remanded to the county jail for safe keeping.

A RARE RADISH.—R. Holman has a radish weighing eleven pounds, which he intends to send East to show his friends there what Oregon can produce. They have seen Mr. Holman himself, who probably need be so much surprised at the huge radish as he imagines.

"NOW I SEE BEAUTIFULLY".—Those are the words your friends with weak vision will utter if you give them a pair of gold spectacles or eyeglasses for Christmas, purchased of Reed & Mallory, 74 Morrison street.

A SMALL FIRE.—A small fire occurred yesterday afternoon in Chin Lee's residence at No. 47 Second street. The damage was slight, being mostly caused by water. The fire was caused by a defective flue.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.—For a splendid assortment of novelties for Christmas gifts, do not fail to call and examine the line offered by E. Meyer & Co.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge Deady will announce a decision in this court this morning in the case of Lee vs. Gault.

FOR MONDAY AND TUESDAY.—In our boot and shoe department gent's holiday slippers at greatly reduced prices. E. Meyer & Co.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—All our fancy goods and this day marked down below cost to close out. John Gan & Co.

WHAT IS OFFERED IN ASTORIA

The Oregon Land Company, With Offices in Salem, Astoria and Albany, Comes to the Front.

The Oregon Land Company is just at the present time offering one, two, three and five-acre tracts adjoining platted additions to Astoria for sale at $150 per acre. These tracts are being offered for sale by the company at their Salem and Astoria offices. The company within the past ten days alone have sold upwards of fifty of these tracts to business men and bankers, and at the present writing they have but thirty-seven left, which they confidently expect will all be sold within the next ten days. The company is in daily receipt of telegraphic orders for these tracts, and they state that it will be necessary for intending purchasers to order at once to get the advantage of these undoubted bargains. They say that there is no better chance for investment on the coast than that afforded by these tracts.

FOR THE THIRTY-SEVENTH TIME.

Mr. S. H. Johnson Will Make a Display of Meats, Outdoing all His Former Displays.

Mr. A. H. Johnson, who for thirty-seven years has made the finest display of meats in the market at Christmas, has determined to beat his record this season. He has three fine prize animals to kill. The prize grade steer, "General Harney," raised by J. Q. Shirley, of La Grande, weighs 2200 and is the finest ever seen here. The others are the registered 4-year-old Hereford heifer, "Cherry Defendor," raised by W. W. West, of Fernpose, and the prize Short Horn cow, "Beauty," raised by A. Marcan, of Salem. He will have a sheep weighing 200 pounds and a hundred others weighing from 100 to 150 pounds each. There will be a whole drove of plump sucking pigs, and, in short, everything in the line of meats to make up such a display as only Johnson makes, and the equal of which it would be hard to find out of Oregon.

NEWSY PARAGRAPHS.

The Union Pacific arrived at 10 o'clock last night, three hours late.

Snow is falling heavily in the Siskiyou mountains and snow plows are working ahead of the trains.

The Southern Pacific's overland came in at 3:50 yesterday afternoon with a heavy train load of passengers.

Mr. H. Rogers, Charlotte Thompson's advance man, was at the Quimby yesterday. Mr. Rogers reports splendid business on the Sound.

The Northern's through train from the East was eight hours late yesterday, arriving about 11:15. A local came down from Tacoma and Seattle on the through trains time.

A hotel bus collided with a heavy truck at the Couch passenger depot a night or two since, and narrowly escaped capsizing. The bus drivers complain that the heavy trucks of the transfer people are left standing with their hind ends out in the street, instead of being drawn up alongside the curb. Serious accidents are feared these dark nights in consequence.

The "We Three & Co." dramatic combination recently formed here was at the Quimby yesterday, en route from the Sound to Eastern Oregon points. The company includes Leon, the dog-key man, Tony Adams, McMahon's old clown, and the four members of the musical Carle family. They report good business above. They left on the Union Pacific last night for The Dalles.

HE WOULD BE A GOOD REFEREE.

It is very likely that John Perry, a director of the Southern Athletic Club, of Los Angeles, will be referee in the Corbett-Campbell boxing match next Saturday, as he takes quite an interest in boxing and refereed all the important matches in the Southern Athletic Club rooms recently. Mr. Perry arrived in Portland on Saturday and is just here for the holidays, and will be a spectator at the contest next Saturday. For an independent referee the choice would be a good one, and the reply given a supporter of Campbell to the question if Mr. Perry would act leads us to the belief that the choice will fall on the man from Los Angeles. A limited number of reserved seats will be placed on sale at Gunst's cigar store and other places to-day. A large delegation of sports is coming from Seattle, Tacoma and other places to see the contest.

BRIEF MENTION.

To enjoy a good Christmas dinner, order yourself one dozen bottles of Silcott's best Oregon wine, at $4.50 a dozen; 255 Morrison street, corner Eleventh.

F. J. Goodenough, of the firm of Lemenweber & Goodenough, real estate agents, Astoria, Or., arrived in the city this morning. Mr. G. says they have several good buys on inside and outside property; will also place Fowler's addition to Astoria on the market about January 1.

Do not buy a cheap piano when you can get the very best for the same money. H. Sinshelmer, the well-known music dealer at 214 First street, has just received an immense shipment of the famous Steinway & Son's and Chickering & Son's pianos—the best instruments in the world. He also carries the only high-grade organ—the Burdett. He is the only Portland music dealer who buys direct from the factories for cash only.

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR'S EXCURSION RATE.

The Northern Pacific Railroad Company place in effect to be used only on December 24, December 25, December 31 and January 1 an excursion rate of one and one-fifth fare for the round trip between all local points west of Spokane Falls, inclusive, restricting destination of ticket to a distance of 200 miles or less from point at which ticket is sold.

The object of this rate is to accommodate the many people who would perhaps like to take a short trip during the holidays, but see no special reason for so doing unless some inducement is offered in the way of railroad fare.

Tickets will be sold only on dates above stated, and will be limited to January 3 for the return trip.

SONG ABOUT THE PLUMBERS.

From the appearance of things Saturday it looked as if the cry would soon be:

"Ice again, frost again, all the pipes are burst again,
I wish Christmas came in the summer.
You can't get the plumbers to work at no price.
At Christmas you can't get a plumber."

THE THEATERS THIS WEEK.

CORDRAY'S MUSEE-THEATER.—"Through the Lines," a fine military drama, will receive its first representation to-night with the full strength of the company.

NEW PARK THEATER.—Frank Mayo, in his beautiful play "Nordeck," will make his first appearance at this house at the matinee on Christmas day.

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. G. Schenk, of The Dalles First National bank, was registered at the St. Charles yesterday.

Surveyor-General Cavanaugh, of Wash ington, is at the Esmond. Tom has evidently not got out of the territorial rut. He still writes his address on the register "T. H. Cavanaugh, Olympia, W. T."

Holiday Excursion via Union Pacific Railway.

For the Christmas and New Year's holiday season of 1889-90, the Union Pacific railway will sell excursion tickets from all rail stations on its lines west of Huntington, to any other rail station on its lines within a radius of 200 miles, at the low rate of one and one-fifth fare for the round trip.

Tickets will be sold December 24, 25, 31, 1889, and January 1, 1890; good going on date of sale, and good returning until January 3, 1890, inclusive. This will afford every one an opportunity to visit their friends and enjoy the occasion.

For tickets, rates, time of trains, etc., apply to George S. Taylor, city ticket agent, corner First and Oak street.

Take the Union Pacific railway for the East, thirty-five hours quicker than any other transcontinental line. Elegant new dining cars, Pullman palace sleepers, free family sleeping cars run through to Denver, Omaha, Council Bluffs, Kansas City St. Louis and Chicago; G. S. Taylor, city ticket agent, 81 First street, corner Oak.

"The Limited Fast Mail"

Leaves Portland daily at 7 A. M. via the Union Pacific railway, with through sleepers and dining cars. Time to Chicago, only seventy hours. Call at Union Ticket office, 81 First street for tickets and berths. George S. Taylor, city ticket agent.

Don't fail to visit Zimmerman's market, First street, near Stark, Monday and Tuesday nights, where you will find on exhibition the largest and best lot of prize cattle, as well as calves, sheep and hogs ever seen in any market on the Pacific coast.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhœa. Price 25 cts. a bottle.

THE LONG AND SHORT HAUL

The positive declaration of the California board of railroad commissioners against the long and short haul clause of the interstate commerce law is extremely significant So far as we know this is the first official condemnation by any state railroad commission of the leading feature of the Federal law State railroad commissions are apt to bear the stamp of the widespread impulse of popular feeling, always more or less uninformed and often prejudiced, which gave birth to the new body of legislation under which they came into being. They are apt to reflect with more or less qualification, the very sentiments which inspired the interstate commerce law itself and to accept its conclusions as ultimate truth in matters affecting the relations of the state to railroads The considerations and influences must have been rather powerful which led the California commissioners to conclusions different from those of their brethren in all the other states of the Union

These considerations are found in the peculiar situation and conditions of the Pacific coast states, which make the universal hardship and injustice of the long and short haul clause bear with especial severity upon them The provision of the Federal law is a deliberate attempt to paralyze the operation of the natural laws of trade, to deprive certain localities of the advantage of physical position and geographical location, and to secure for others artificial and natural benefits by legislative fiat. Cities are not built up by legislation nor can legislation destroy them but it can retard their progress and dwarf their growth This is what the long and short haul clause seeks to do for such cities as Chicago St Paul, San Francisco and Portland which the happy accident of their geographical position designates as natural terminals and distributing points of traffic This not only makes railroad business to these points conspicuously heavy, but makes it the basis of additional business growing out of the inevitable reshipment to points of consumption Low railroad rates are the natural result The railroads carry goods to these natural terminals more cheaply than to other points at the same or less distance, because it is good business policy to do so First the large volume of business justifies a low wholesale rate just as a hogshead of sugar sells at a lower price per pound than a single pound Second, the fact that all traffic carried into a natural distributing center gives rise to new traffic going out of it, warrants railroads in making every effort to increase the volume of traffic by low rates Railroads have no interest in building up cities per se They have an interest in increasing their business and swelling their revenues, and this is served by making low rates to natural distributing points The interest of the railroad companies and of the communities dependent upon the distributing points is common The same policy that gives one large business and revenues secures the other the benefit of low rates and consequent low prices The California commissioners see this very clearly They say

Our people are large consumers of all the manufactures and many of the products of the Eastern states, and are vitally interested in securing advantageous rates for transportation from remote states which manufacture largely and cheaply, and supply products we need Within a very few years our people have become large producers of commodities for which the home market is very limited, but for which there is a vast market in the Eastern states and for the expansion of the marketing area for our products we must in a large measure look for continued prosperity Any law restricting our markets whether as consumers or producers is, of doubtful public utility There can be nothing wrong or harmful to the interests of the people of this nation in the greatest freedom for interchange of commodities between the East and West, and a law which makes the rates and facilities to and from remote sections of this great country dependent on the interests of intervening sections of comparatively trifling importance to us cannot be beneficial in its results to this state This we think wrong on highest public grounds, nor can we conceive it to be in any sense to the real interest of our people

This reasoning is not only true of California but it applies to every community so placed that it can draw its supplies or ship its products to one of those few points designed by nature for distributing depots The interstate commerce law is aimed primarily at cities like St Paul Portland and San Francisco but its blow really falls upon the smaller cities and rural communities which draw supplies from them The consumer pays the freight in the ultimate settlement The increase of railroad rates to Portland means the increase of wholesale prices to Corvallis and Walla Walla, and the increase of retail prices to the farmers of the Willamette and Walla Walla valleys The people of California have come to understand this and those of Oregon and Washington should not be behind them in clearness of perception The real effect of the long and short haul clause is plainer on the Pacific coast than elsewhere because of our distance from the points of origin of traffic But it is everywhere the same Like all clumsy interferences with natural law the operation of this section is hurtful to many and beneficial to none Some day the people of the whole country will awake to this fact and bring to bear upon congress a pressure for the repeal of the long and short haul clause that will be simply irresistible

COUNTRIES YET NEW

Man has had a long career on this planet, yet it is surprising when one stops to think about it how much "new country" the globe still affords That is, how many regions still habitable and destined to become seats of high civilization and great empire are still little known

These regions are almost wholly in the Southern hemisphere Hitherto the energies of man have been exerted almost wholly in the North Every Northern region as far as practicable has been explored and largely occupied, and men from the North are now turning their attention more than heretofore to the regions south of the equator The continents of Africa and South America are the fields of his new enterprise and endeavor and they are getting attention from both the Northern continents

Exploration is opening Middle South Africa to the knowledge of mankind and it cannot be doubted that within the next half century the foundation of important states will be laid in this region Private enterprise and individual courage are supported already by the help of several civilized governments England, Portugal Belgium France, Germany are taking active interest and lending substantial assistance It is highly probable that brisk occupation of the interior of Africa by Europeans from points on both seaboards of the continent will soon begin This will be the natural result of discovery and exploration

South America, in a general way, is already well known, yet it is an undeveloped region of vast possibilities During some years past a remarkable exodus from Southern Europe to South America has been in progress and it is steadily increasing in volume It is believed that during the present year South America will receive from Europe nearly half a million people The stream flows into the Argentine Republic into Brazil, into Uruguay and Chili This is something new in history for the Latin races hitherto have not been strongly moved by the migratory instinct which has been so prevalent among the races of the North The movement of this stream from the south of Europe to South America shows once more the distinctive disinclination of the Latin and Teutonic race to fuse with each other We have received, indeed some Spaniards, Italians and Portuguese, but no such bodies as are now making their way to South America From the north of Europe the stream still flows to North America but sends only a feeble current to the southern division of the American continent It is a curious thing to note how long racial antipathies and repugnances survive, even under the active intercourse of modern cosmopolitan life People who come to our country from the south of Europe do not readily melt into the mass of our population but retain their own characteristics for a long period, or perhaps never wholly lose them, while those who come from the north quickly assimilate and make themselves perfectly at home

From development of new countries great changes in industrial and commercial affairs affecting the whole world are sure to take place—indeed are taking place now South America is already increasing her agricultural production to an extent that exerts a powerful influence on the markets of the world This production is destined to a further increase that now is scarcely conceivable Added to the increased production of India brought about by the extension of railways throughout that great country it is letting down in the world's markets the price of wheat, it is a growing factor in depreciation of the value of wool Rapid intercourse and low rates of ocean transportation are bringing all the products of cheap agricultural labor throughout the world into more active competition than ever before with our own labor in agricultural pursuits It is an unpleasant fact yet we must face it More and more, as it is studied, it shows the necessity of maintaining conditions at home which will make the largest possible home market

AN AFFAIR OF MARRIAGES

A Paris letter to Labouchere's London Truth seems to throw a clearer light upon the immediate cause of the revolution in Brazil than all the newspaper letters and elegrams printed from the new republic According to this writer the discontent of the Brazilian politicians who brought about the expulsion of the Braganza family was caused by two unpopular royal marriages, or rather by an element these marriages introduced into the court Dom Pedro had no male heir and his two daughters though very plain and dowdy persons, like his estimable empress, were very desirable matches and were eagerly wooed by the third rate princelings of Europe, and attracted much attentions from the royal match makers and go betweens who like to busy themselves in these affairs It is notorious that Queen Victoria is the most inveterate match maker in Europe, and it was through her offices, good or bad, as the result may show that Dom Pedro's younger daughter was married to Prince Augustus, of Saxe Coburg a relative of the late Prince Consort Augustus seems to have been not a bad fellow but he had the indiscretion to bring a lot of lusty little princes into the world ahead of his elder brother in-law who had the right to expect to beget an heir to the throne The temporary prospect that a son of Augustus might inherit gave him a factitious importance in the Brazilian court, and encouraged in him pretensions that exacted the jealousy, not only of his relatives but of the ministers and politicians of the empire

This was not a circumstance however to the mischief ultimately brewed by the pretensions of the other son in law of Dom Pedro This personage is the Comte d'Eu of whom so much has been heard pending the decorous expatriation of the royal family He belongs to the younger branch of the French Bourbons and is a cousin or nephew of the pretender of Orleans His marriage with the Brazilian princess was brought about by another royal lady with a taste for match making the Princess de Joinville one of the prolific Orleans group and a relation of the Brazilian empress The Comte d'Eu turned out to be a stirring and ambitious son in-law who itched to help govern Brazil and was eager to anticipate his future position as prince consort He neglected for some years the duty of giving an heir to the throne and this somewhat dwarfed his influence and thwarted his ambition From the birth of his son, however, a few years ago, both increased inordinately The princess royal, his wife the heir apparent to the throne is a comfortable, easy going, domestic sort of person who was quite content to sew on the royal buttons and to leave the politics of the family to her consort Dom Pedro is an amiable old party, too and took no steps to check the growing intervention of his son in law in the government So the Comte d'Eu became in fact the most important personage about the court, although in name only an annex to it by marriage Naturally this indiscreet officiousness soon made him the most unpopular personage in the kingdom Besides the court jealousies growing out of the disappointed hopes of his brother in law there was the political antagonism sure to be excited by the interference of a foreign prince and above all a French prince in the government of Brazil Ever Prince Albert, the most sagacious and tactful of consorts found himself in constant difficulties with the ministers of his wife and queen The Comte d'Eu, who tried to play Albert before his wife was empress and without a fraction of Albert's tact and wisdom was perpetually in hot water with the Brazilian ministers and parliamentary leaders

It is said that a plot was laid long ago to prevent the accession of the princess royal to the throne by declaring a republic upon the death of Dom Pedro The influence of the Comte d'Eu over his wife was such that he would virtually rule in her stead, and the youth of the prince royal threatened a long and dangerous regency if the rights of his mother were set aside without putting an end to the Braganza dynasty This plan was probably known to the Comte d'Eu, and his counter plot to prevent its success would undoubtedly have involved the country in war and bloodshed To avert this these contemporary historians relate that the declaration of the republic was hastened the imperial family hustled out of the country between two days and the new government put in operation before the obnoxious son in law had time to prepare an effective resistance If this story is true and it bears all the marks of probability the revolution is, as was suspected, purely an affair of the palace or at least of the capital, with which the people of Brazil had no more to do than the people of Turkey with the deposition of Murad a dozen years ago The United States senate surely did well to hesitate to recognize a republic set up in this way Its only guarantee of permanence is the apathy of the people and the personal influence of its leaders There is already talk of the restoration of the Braganza dynasty in the person of one of the sons of Prince Augustus who is old enough to rule, free from the odium attached to his uncle and who would have the support of both the German and English courts It may almost be taken for granted that the epoch of revolutions in Brazil just begun after eighty years of peace will not finish itself in one act

The revenue bill introduced in the house last week by Mr McKinley is one affecting the administration of the laws and not the tariff duties It is based upon the administrative parts of the senate bill being in fact, merely an amended copy of that bill as it was passed in January, 1889 The amendments are not many but several of them are regarded as important, The object of the bill is to prevent frauds at the customs houses not only at New York by the undervaluation of goods in false invoices These frauds have been common and extensive in years past and have cost the government millions of dollars in customs revenue The general tariff bill which passed the senate last winter undertook further to guard against these frauds by changing a great many ad valorem to specific duties Of course it is only ad valorem duties that can be evaded in part by undervaluations in invoices The need of this administrative reform tariff bill is generally recognized by both parties in congress and its passage before the end of the session is highly probable

NOT ABOVE CRITICISM

The Dalles Times Mountaineer says "The supreme court has decided on appeal that Sandy Olds convicted of murder should have a new trial and we see some of the papers of the state criticising the decision We do not consider this by any means fair journalism The opinions of the supreme court are not above examination or beyond criticism Every public utterance by a public officer is under our system open to examination and criticism by press and people But the Times Mountaineer says Every unfavorable criticism of the judgment of the high court is that Sandy Olds is guilty of murder and should be hanged" With great pertinence it might be asked who that knows anything about the case doubts that he is guilty and should be hanged? Who that is to say except a gang of gamblers in Portland a portion of the police force of the city and two or three lawyers of the class who for money can always be engaged on the side of crime and against law justice and the interests of society? Is it to be supposed that the two members of the supreme court who have ordered a new trial know better whether Olds is guilty of murder or not than the court and jury that tried him heard all the testimony and found him guilty? Reverence for law is continually invoked as a shelter for the sharp and immoral practice which constantly attacks and often defeats both law and justice and this same sharp and immoral practice is constantly enlisting a solemn public stupidity on its side and filling its mouth with round phrases in support of the pretense that its methods of obstructing justice and preventing the punishment of crime are the safeguards of society Men who can be bribed and are hired every day with the proceeds of crime to defend crime are voluble in their protestations that they want justice,' and declaim against public expressions that would create prejudice' against crime and criminals That is their trade They pursue it to make money, and great part of their skill is expended in getting a class of people to mumble with reverence the phrases under which they ply their vocation

It turns out that the strongest opposition to the confirmation of the nomination of Judge Brewer in the senate grew out of his decision in the Iowa prohibition cases which was afterwards reversed by the supreme court in which he held that the state could not prohibit the manufacture of beer without compensating the brewers The exact purpose of his decision is not generally understood Judge Brewer held that when the state prohibited the manufacture of beer it must allow compensation for the brewery property thus rendered useless or impaired in value To destroy the earning value of property by forbidding the owner to use it may be considered the same thing as confiscating the property itself He did not as some prohibitionists are claiming rule that the state must pay the full value of the breweries but only the actual damage inflicted by the prohibitory laws The buildings remained and could be used for other purposes and most of the machinery appliances etc could be taken to other states and sold, Allowing all such deductions Judge Brewer held that the state must make good the actual pecuniary loss inflicted on the brewers and must do so before the establishment could be closed Reversing Judge Brewer the supreme court held that a prohibition upon the use of property for purposes which are declared injurious to the public health or morals does not amount to a taking for public benefit, but is a mere regulation under the police power This was a prudent and convenient escape from the awkward conclusions to which Judge Brewer's logic led him and enabled the court to satisfy the prohibitionists Justice Field dissented from the ruling of the court and held with Brewer

The Torrey bankruptcy bill introduced in the house Saturday, an outline of whose provisions is printed elsewhere, is the measure recommended by the national convention of representatives of commercial bodies of the United States, held at Minneapolis in September and known as the Torrey bill It is thought by friends of the Lowell bill that the present bill embodies the wisdom of the other, and that it is a simpler and more comprehensive measure One of the difficulties in the way of the Lowell bill in past congresses was a marked disposition on the part of Western senators and representatives to regard it as a better measure for the East than for the West The Torrey bill is drawn with a special reference to this opposition and it is believed that its provisions will be entirely satisfactory to the West While it is so acceptable to those who indorsed the Lowell bill that they have taken it as a substitute for and successor to that measure The commercial interests of the country have come to general agreement as to the necessity of some federal bankruptcy law If it is true that sectional opposition to the measure has been overcome it is probable that it will become a law during the session

Mr Henry Spalding of Almota Wash writes to the Palouse Gazette

The first apple trees ever planted in the new state of Washington, which are still growing were planted by Rev H. H. Spalding at Alpowai, Asotin county, in 1837 The orchard consists of about a dozen trees the largest being over nine feet in circumference The trees were planted by Rev Wolf an old chief of the Nez Perces Indians Rev H H Spalding crossed the plains with Dr Whitman in 1836 and they brought the apple seeds with them and planted them the following spring There are also several large apple trees at Whitman station in Walla Walla that were planted in the same year by Dr Whitman

Since 1882 Omaha has expended $3 385 000 in paving her streets During that period the city has laid fifty two and a half miles of pavement of these descriptions viz

Colorado sandstone	9 2 miles
Sioux Falls granite	4 5 miles
Asphalt	12 2 miles
Cedar block	21 miles
Cypress block	1 57 miles
Brick	1 mile

There is a "pointer" for other cities in the fact that the people of Omaha unanimously say that the investment in these pavements has added immensely to the permanent value of all the real estate in the city

TO IMPROVE PALOUSE RIVER

Columbus Chronicle Last week Farris of Whitman county introduced a memorial in the state senate which demands that such improvements be made in the Palouse river as will render it fit for logging purposes through the year When Columbia county asked of the state the privilege of issuing bonds the Colfax Gazette kindly suggested that we raise the money by private subscription The persistent begging of the Whitman county delegates in the state legislature gives the lie direct to former professions of private enterprise In one case Columbia county only asked to build a line to dispose of her own In the other case Whitman county asks aid for the purpose of making a small stream in the county navigable for saw logs at all seasons of the year The Palouse Gazette should take up a collection for the mill owners on the Palouse and stop this whining

A NEW SCHOOL HOUSE WANTED

Silverton Appeal It has been discovered by our citizens that a school district cannot be bonded for a debt except by a special act of the legislature, and as the Oregon legislature will not meet until January 1891 all hopes of building a school house by bonding the district will come to naught The only recourse left is to vote a tax and to raise $1,000 at one fell swoop is not likely to strike our taxpayers very cordially Can any one suggest a method by which Silverton can get a new school house?

SANDY OLDS'S NEW TRIAL

I depend on West Side Sandy Olds a noted gambler in Portland, who killed Bill Webber, another gambler is granted a new trial The ground of the granting of a new trial are flimsy in the extreme We are glad to know that Judge Lord dissented even if Strahan and Thayer did not Money rightly used will do almost anything The funds for defending this Olds are subscribed by gamblers, and gamblers know how to use their associates Sandy Olds may now escape the clutches of the law

APPARENTLY A RARE ACT

Centralia News Ex President Cleveland at tracted considerable attention the other day in a New York elevated train because he got up and gave his seat to a homely faced working girl and then stood hanging on to a strap all the way down to Cortlandt street The rarity of the act in New York probably caused as much comment as the eminence of the actor

THE CITY'S BIG HOTEL.

Return of Mr Charles E. Leland of "The Portland."

WHAT THE MANAGER HAS TO SAY

The Two Dredges Have Been Brought From Down the River.

THEY BOTH HAVE DONE GOOD WORK

Sunday Along the Harbor—Something About the Influenza—Colville Reservation—Wants to Meet Corbett—He Was Mad

Mr Charles E Leland manager of The Portland, who went East some four months since to secure the necessary cook help kitchen furniture laundry outfit etc, for the big hotel, has returned looking not a whit the worse for his trip to the bleak country way off there, and is genial and jovial as becomes the typical Boniface He is accompanied by his wife a sprightly and vivacious lady, who already feels at home in, and has formed a favorable impression of our city

They have been through The Portland and Mr Leland is much pleased with the work done on the building since he left The office he says, will be a very fine one and the fireplace the handsomest one in the country The dining room finishing is very fine, and the ladies ordinary, with its oaken beams in the antique style is beautiful The handsome mahogany cabinet mantels and mirrors now being put in place in the ladies parlor will make it one of the finest rooms of the kind imaginable

Mr Leland bought the most complete and magnificent outfit for the kitchen which it was possible to obtain There will be thirty six feet of ranges, a sixty and a forty gallon copper stock boiler eighteen foot steam table broiling apparatus and all the other appurtenances of the best, costing in all about $5000 In short the kitchen will be one of the show rooms of the hotel, which Mr Leland will be pleased to show to all who wish to visit it The machinery for making ice and for the cold storage are on the way and are the best that could be procured

The complete outfit for the laundry is in the building and the electric chandeliers are also ready for putting up

The furniture is all ready to be shipped Mr Leland saw it while he was East and was perfectly satisfied with it. It is very handsome and in the latest styles

The carpets, ten carloads, will arrive to-day Mr Leland will put a force of men to work to morrow to clean out the building and Mr H F Gullixson says he will put a double force of sewers at work and have 500 yards of carpet sewed per day and will lay the carpets from the top of the building down as fast as possible

Mr Leland says when the furniture and fixtures are in The Portland will be one of the most elegant and best equipped hotels in the country He expects to be able to open it to the public on February 22 the birthday of the Father of our country

From his extensive experience and acquaintance Mr Leland has been enabled to select a staff of employes each of whom is a master in his line The head cook is a Swiss Joseph Poggi by name who has been head cook for the past eight years at a hotel at Richfield Springs N Y, a fashionable watering place patronized by the elite of the country

Mr George Reichstein formerly of the Clarendon hotel Saratoga, will have charge of the bakery and pastry department. Miss Anna Robinson will have charge of the twenty five chambermaids who will be models of neatness and propriety The bell boys and waiters will be colored Mr T H Frazie the head waiter, late of the Kimball house Atlanta Ga, will have a crew of thirty men under him Mr E B Irving will have charge of the restaurant and will have fifteen assistants.

Mr Joshua Gray the head hall man, will have a force of ten bell boys under him He is one of the most genteel and accomplished of his class and the force of waiters are all genteel and well trained and will give satisfaction to the patrons of the house

The clerks have not been decided upon as yet, but they will be equal to the occasion, and will correspond with everything else in the hotel by being first class

THE DREDGES BROUGHT UP

They Have Made a Very Successful Campaign Against the Bars.

The city dredge and the government scoop dredge have completed their work at Walker's island and Martin's island bars in the Columbia and were brought up to the government boneyard Saturday There is now a clear channel from Portland to the ocean, carrying twenty feet at extreme low water

The councilmen who have aided in securing that much to be deserved state of affairs and the United States engineer force who did all in their power to bring it about are deserving of the thanks of our citizens and they do not intend to let well enough alone but will endeavor to have the channel made twenty four feet deep next summer and it is not likely that this channel will ever be allowed to get filled up The city dredge has proved a most admirable and powerful machine, and care will be taken that she is not allowed to lie at the levee and rot, as some of the councilmen have wished her to A dredge that can remove 9000 cubic yards of dirt in a week is worth taking care of and there is plenty of work for her to do in this harbor

THE EPIDEMIC INFLUENZA

The County Physician Discusses Its History and Symptoms.

The dispatches have been announcing the arrival in New York and the westward spread of the influenza. A reporter asked Dr C C Strong Saturday about the symptoms of the disease

The disease is an epidemic said the doctor and is known as an influenza. It is characterized by a variety of symptoms

We have general and local symptoms The general symptoms are sudden and extreme prostration depression of spirits, with loss of energy, then intermittent fever of a somewhat low degree The local symptoms are mainly of the head sometimes of the lungs, and are catarrhal in character

It is not dangerous in the young and robust unless complicated with some of the severer diseases, such as pneumonia (lung fever) pleuritis, bronchitis. It is somewhat dangerous to life in the aged, in weak persons those affected with pulmonary diseases and in the intemperate It is usually epidemic in character and widespread It affects two fifths to four fifths of the population of a district within from thirty to sixty days the usual time it remains in a neighborhood, so you see that it spreads rapidly

The epidemic usually affects a person from four to nine days but he may be somewhat longer recovering from the effects of the disease It is not new as some seem to think and its course is about the same every time It usually starts in the East and spreads in time all over Europe and this country

It has been epidemic in 1510 1557, 1729 1738, 1743 1762 1775 1782 1830, 1837, 1841, 1844, 1847 and 1851. Its usual routes have been the same as those of Asiatic cholera, but there are no relations of cause and effect between the two

SUNDAY IN THE HARBOR

The Challenger Arrives—Sna boat and Dredger—The Orpheus and Its Home

The Alameda will be in the harbor to morrow

Work has been commenced on a new pontoon for the Cyclone's Albina landing It is to be some 80x50 feet in dimensions and will have a comfortable and commodious waiting room It will occupy the same place as the present one, and will be completed in about thirty days at a cost of $600

Machinery has been shipped from the East for the new Albina boat Typhoon This is to be much larger than the Cyclone with a capacity for 150 passengers She will take the Cyclone's place as soon as she can be made ready the latter going into the shipyard for repairs The Typhoon will cover the route until spring when the Cyclone will be put on to make alternate trips with her

The government snagboat Willamette came up from Walker's island Saturday night and had a pretty heavy load to tow, assisted by the propeller Lincoln There were the city dredge the Osgood dredge Santiam and five government scows St. Helens was left at 11 A M and the boneyard reached at 7 30 Here the dredges and barges were left and the snagboat proceeded up to D street where she is now lying After towing the city dredge up to the city levee the snagboat will go into winter quarters at the government boneyard

Among the many curiosities which the Santiam picked up with the dipper is a two ton granite sinker which had been used as a buoy It will be turned over to the Mermaid and it will probably be used for a new buoy at Walker's island The huge stone was directly in the channel, and it was fortunate that no ships touched upon it. At St Helens bar the dipper picked up an anchor with forty feet of chain attached, and ropes, old clothes, sacks and many curious things

It had been purposed to make a trip up the Willamette with the snagboat but as the river is rising and the snags are under water it has been given up

A reporter boarded the Challenger at Flanders wharf yesterday afternoon and found Captain Curtis of the Starbuck there glad to greet an American captain, for the Challenger is the first ship outside of coasters that has entered Portland harbor since the Starbuck anchored in the Columbia 1 July

Captain L H Thompson, of the Challenger has followed the sea for forty years, and has had no mishaps in that long time, barring the occasional havoc which trade winds play with sails and rigging

The Challenger sailed from New York the 14th of last July Her experience between 50 degrees and the equator was much as other ships are reporting and as those now so long out must have encountered The lower fore and main topsails were lost from the cape up to 59 degrees very heavy gales prevailed The first officer was sick from the cape up The crew was discharged at Astoria and it is yet undecided whether he Challenger or Starbuck will reship here or there. Captain Thompson of the Challenger, and L O Chapman both invested in Astoria real estate

The Challenger's cargo (the usual heavy invoice of kerosene, several hundred tons of steel rails for the Southern Pacific fence wire, and the ... the six boilers two engines and other machinery of a large sawmill plant

A pleasant home is that on board the British ship Orpheus of Greenock now lying at Montgomery dock Captain Young is accompanied by his wife a comely British matron and their two daughters Lizzie and Emma. Mrs Young and Lizzie were here thirteen years ago this year when Captain Young brought hither the new ship Norval

"We do not follow the sea because we love it I assure you said Mrs Young and the time we spend in port is our happiest The few pleasant days we have aboard ship we enjoy of course but the stormy weather is anything but agreeable No we do not always go out with the captain I have been twice to Calcutta twice to Java But we have been five years at the Greenock home without making a voyage We were glad to reach Port and harbor, for we had a long and stormy voyage We received quite a supply of letters and papers, twenty four in all, and are now busy answering them as you see We have also been renewing the many pleasant acquaintances we formed when here thirteen years ago"

It was the 9th of November that the Orpheus, in 4 degrees north and 119 deg west, lost her fore topgallant mast foretopmast head, and a good many sails from all the masts. Contrary winds were encountered in the North Pacific and very hard blows off Tillamook rock She passed within three miles of Cape Horn in a smooth sea and a speed of thirteen knots.

TO OPEN THE COLVILLE RESERVATION.

A Rich Body of Land Withheld From Settlement in Eastern Washington

Representative M H Randall, of Stevens county Washington is at the St. Charles. He expects to leave for Spokane Falls this evening He is the author of a memorial to congress, which has passed both houses of the Washington legislature praying congress to open the Colville Indian reservation to settlement.

"The opening of this reservation" said Representative Randall yesterday, would greatly aid the development of Eastern Washington, which is now being settled at a rapid rate The reservation is in the western part of Stevens and contains about 2,500 000 acres It is irregular in shape and contains, but there are some fine rich valleys, well timbered The streams abound with trout and of game there is no end

"The reservation is rich in minerals Gold silver, copper lead and marble have been found. No prospecting of any consequence has been done, the land being held by the Indians. Stevens county is naturally a mining county The Old Dominion mine has yielded $300,000 in silver and lead during the last three or four years, of which about $200 000 has been clear profit. It has been necessary to haul the ore 100 miles over a rough road to Spokane Falls to ship it.

"The Colville tribe numbers 2000, of whom about 500 live on the reservation the rest being scattered through Stevens Spokane and Okanogan counties, Those on the reservation are thrifty and prosperous and raise and sell wheat. If the reservation were divided each Indian would have 5600 acres. If the usual plan of allotment were pursued there would be plenty of land for bona fide white settlers The opening of the reservation would bring 5000 families to Stevens county, which means an increase of 25,000 in the population

McCLARNEY, THE "IRISH GIANT."

He Is Very Anxious to Meet Professor Corbett in a Glove Contest.

First and last considerable has been said in the papers about the willingness of certain men in Portland to back the "Unknown," against either Professor Jim Corbett or Dave Campbell, for any sum from $250 to $1000, for any number of rounds with gloves. Much conjecture has been indulged in as to who the "Unknown" is He proves to be James McClarney the "Irish Giant." Last night McClarney presented himself at this office to relate his offer He is a large, tall, muscular built man weighing about 200 pounds and rather raw-boned He looks, in fact like a modern Hercules, and has a very determined appearance

McClarney came to Portland about the time Pat Killen did last summer Since then he has been making his home in this city. He sparred at the Standard theater several times with Billy Smith the man who made things so tropical for George La Blanche the Denver some time ago McClarney came from Chicago Ill. He has the reputation of being very clever in addition to his weight and great strength He says he is willing to make a match with Corbett for $1000 a side with gloves or any number of rounds. In fact he is very anxious to meet Mr Corbett with the 'mits, He has backers whose money is ready at any time A statement was made in the Evening Telegram that Mr Corbett had shaken $1000 in McClarney's face

"This is entirely untrue" said the "Giant" indignantly to an OREGONIAN reporter I should like very much indeed to meet Corbett for $1000 with gloves for 10 or any number of rounds My backers stand ready with the cash As to my reputation as a pugilist I consider it is better than Corbett's The fact can be proved by Richard K Fox of New York Corbett's reputation will not suffer by meeting me All efforts that have been made by my backers to get Corbett to sign for a contest have proved fruitless. I should like to contest for the ability of Portland and state of Oregon as I expect to make my home here If Corbett and his friends mean business they can be accommodated at any time and place"

Several men who were present expressed their desire to back the "Irish Giant." From his appearance, it is no hazard to say that he would make it quite interesting for any of the boys.

HE TOOK HIS MEDICINE

A Man Picked Up a Receipted Bill and Forthwith Grew Very Wrathy

A well known old resident of this city rushed into Dr O P S Plummer's drug store Saturday, with fire in his eye and a tropical temperature on the region of his collar, and with some warmth and considerable use of expletives, said he had bought his last dose of physic in that establishment. He always paid his bills, and had paid last month's bill when presented and had a receipt for it, and now he had received another, had found it on his desk to day That was no way to do business — etc etc A hasty examination showed that his statement was correct and upon the bill being examined, it was found that it was not from O P S. Plummer at all, but from John Donnerberg plumber. The irate citizen hastened to Mr Donnerberg's establishment and asked them to listen to his tale of woe Before he had got through with it a clerk discovered that the bill was properly receipted, and that all the ado had been about nothing The irate citizen fell down and concluded that he must have accidentally placed the receipted bill on his desk himself, and, to make matters straight, gave an order to have all his pipes overhauled and then wended his way to the drug store and said meekly that he was sick and did not feel very well anyhow and he ordered half a dozen bottles of citrate of magnesia, a pint of black draught, and a dozen boxes of pills and a pound of quinine, to cure his biliousness and said they might put in anything else they thought would be good for him and charge it in his' next bill

HAS HE SKIPPED HENCE?

Reports Are Afloat That C W. Brooks Has Levanted

C W Brooks alleged manager of the alleged Chicago Land Company, who had an office at 131 Fifth street, is supposed to have levanted. A notice posted on the door at his place is as follows

All parties interested in the timber claims located from this office are requested to meet here at 3 P M Monday December 23 This notice is signed Common Sufferers, and it is said there are about 100 of them and they are out about $35 each Brooks went to Seattle some days since, and from there wrote to his office boys saying that the people here had gone back on their contracts and his address in future would be Canada. The boys distributed the office furniture among themselves and closed the office The general desire for acquiring timber lands has produced a crop of sharpers who prey upon the unsophisticated and unwary There are a number of capitalists in the business of acquiring timber lands but they want the earth and about the best terms they offer are $50 to a man who will perjure himself to put them in possession of land worth several thousand dollars

CHRISTMAS AT THE JAIL.

Sheriff Kelly Will Furnish the Prisoners With a Turkey Dinner.

How the Prisoners Are Faring—A Talk With the Jailer—Where the Men Are Kept—The New Steel Cages.

By calling at the county jail an OREGONIAN reporter yesterday found the prisoners in a state of joyful expectancy, for Sheriff Kelly, with his usual generosity, has promised, and we see that on the 25th a good old fashioned turkey dinner will be provided the seventy men who constitute the county's lodgers

"Of the seventy inmates under our charge," said Jailor Hoxsie, "thirty three are kept in the right-hand corridor of the east wing, the same corridor that contains the cell from which Gay, the horse thief and his fellow prisoners made their escape by digging out last summer In the corridor to the left of the main hallway are kept twenty criminals. The witness room contains a number more Three of the worst men are in the three steel cages, known as "murderer's row," two more are in the hospital room, and three trusties are working at various odd jobs around the premises."

In the cell formerly occupied by the escaped young California lunatic, L G Sagel, was Al Cody He was with his wife and child, eating his dinner which is brought to him every day, so that he is not obliged to partake of prison fare

"Sandy" Olds', the murderer John O'Brien, who is awaiting his trial, before Judge Deady, on an indictment charging him with robbing the mails of the postoffice at Albany, and John Case the would be Chinese chop robber, occupy the three steel cages to the left of the main hall. Case is still wearing his head "in a sling," the effects of his having came in contact with the Chinese woodchopper's hatchet. Case stands convicted of this crime but is now held, awaiting his trial on the indictment charging him with robbing and attempting to murder a young man, named Louis Kelich, down on Columbia slough, a few weeks previous to his attempt to clean out the Chinamen As there is not sufficient room in the cages for proper exercise, these three worthies are allowed from four to six hours a day in the large hospital room, where they spend the time pacing the floor, with gloomy countenance, conjecturing on the possible outcome of their trials.

Among the inmates of the large corridor are James T. Barrey, of East Portland who was convicted and fined $500 for bigamy Barrey stoutly proclaims his innocence, and says his attorneys will make a motion for a new trial before the ten days given the defense by the judge will have passed.

Billy Baker and John Frances, the two Indians held under an indictment by the United States grand jury, whereby they are charged with outraging the person of a little Indian girl named Winnie Johnson of the Siletz reservation, are also among the inmates The red men claim they are not guilty of any crime, and that it is a case of malicious prosecution Baker is an Indian policeman, and says he and Frances were sent after two little "klootchmens" that had ran away, and that they overtook them before they had crossed the reservation lines and brought them back. They claim the girl was bribed by their enemies to swear falsely. The men will be given a fair trial to prove their innocence, but the general impression is that they are guilty

Three Chinamen are also in the same corridor, Chu Tock, the Chinese actor held for shooting a fellow Celestial, Ah Sam, convicted of perjury, last spring and whose case was granted a stay of proceedings by the supreme court until his attorney argues the motion for a new trial, and Ah Lee, who was sent up from Justice Tuttle's court for having opium in his possession.

William Hawthorn, the man who was discovered one morning last summer in Dr Welch's office on First street, and who when discovered jumped from a one story window to the pavement, is still trying the insanity dodge His trial is set for January 9

William Wallace, colored who stole a watch from a Chinaman in the Gem saloon, not long since, amuses and manages to partially keep up the spirit of the rest of his cell companions, by his negro songs and dances He is about as jolly a specimen of the colored race as can be found and he takes his "hard luck" philosophically

C W McKnight, a Pullman car porter indicted for having stolen $2 from a young lady's purse that was left hanging on a coat hook in a restaurant, will have his trial before Judge Stearns on January 16.

Bell Hazelwood, also colored looks very moody, and feels blue. His brother was sent to penitentiary a few weeks since for larceny, and he is still, failing to have the required $75 with which to liquidate the fine Judge Stearns saw fit to impose upon him for trying to shoot the hand off of Jerry Leger the bar-keeper of the coon joint" on Second and A streets, is now forced to languish.

Bartholomew Leusterheister, a German, is awaiting his trial, charged by his wife of being guilty of a very revolting offense—criminal intimacy with his own daughter for five years past He is shunned even by the Chinamen, with whom he is forced to sleep. The other inmates of the jail will have nothing to do with him, and his only resource from their taunts is in seeking the companionship of the Chinamen, whose language he doesn't understand.

The steel cages in the new south wing will soon be ready for occupancy The plumbers are now busy putting in the steam heaters When finished, all of the worst cases will be immediately transferred from the unsafe corridors to the new fire and escape proof quarters "Sandy" Olds will also occupy a new cage with the rest.

Said Mr Sprague, who shares the duties of jailer with Mr Hoxsie "There is always more or less risk to run when changing the prisoners from the cells to the larger rooms for their necessary daily exercise. But when the new cages are ready for occupancy all this changing will be done away with. The new cells are equipped with closets and bathtubs, and when the time comes around for the exercise all I have to do is to pull one or two of the handles to that patent concern, and all the doors to the cages are opened The men can then take their walk up and down the long steel corridor that has been warranted to defy both file and saw The only time," concluded Mr. Sprague, "that they will have to be taken out when once put in there will be when they are brought to the courtroom for trial."

C. W. RODY, P. M.

THE WASHINGTON MEDICAL BILL.

POMEROY, Wash., Dec. 20.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

House bill No. 27, submitted by Powers to the legislature of Washington, seems to have raised quite a breeze among the various so-called schools and system of medicine.

Your columns state that on the day the bill came up, the homœopaths were out in full force, and a petition was presented, setting forth in substance that the Powers bill is a blow at the liberties of the people, and that the allopaths are seeking to exclude all other schools of medicine, and acknowledge by their acts that they can not stand in the face of honest competition, and therefore seek to compel people by law to patronize them exclusively.

The Powers bill may be defective, and perhaps in some respects is, but what class of doctors do we always find raising a howl against legislation that would compel men to know something about medicine before attempting to practice it? Is it not mostly men who are plying their vocation without a diploma or anything to show they have ever studied medicine or the collateral branches? Along with the homœopaths and eclectics, we find physiomedicists, electrotherapists, biochemicists, Christian science healers, magnetic and faith doctors, and many others. It is not my aim to insinuate that these all stand on the same level, but they work together to oppose legislation requiring professional attainments and knowledge to qualify the candidate for practice.

Many of these so-called systems of medicine, have no system, no schools, no text books, and no regular curriculum of study. Multitudes of these so-called doctors have no knowledge of the structure or workings of the human organism, any more than any common blacksmith or sheepherder.

It is against such, and these noisy street fakirs, and conjuring and advertising charlatans, who offend decency and common sense, that we would level the law. No man has any right to be tampering with the delicate organism of the human system, pretending to work cures, who has no knowledge of its structure or functions.

All physicians, or persons pretending to take upon themselves the office of physician, ought to be required by law to submit to an examination in anatomy, physiology, chemistry, pathology, materia medica, practical and operative surgery and obstetrics. These are the main branches of study required by every regular medical college. As to the matter of theory and practice and therapeutics there is a difference. The first-named subjects or branches are purely scientific. They are not, and cannot be allopathic, nor are they homœopathic nor eclectic. These studies are above all pathies and isms, and should be understood thoroughly by all physicians, regardless of school, before being permitted to practice. We want a law that will require and enforce a knowledge of these subjects. Since those branches are necessary to a correct understanding of the human organism, and its physiological and pathological workings, it would seem that there ought to be no objection to requiring a knowledge of them. Our people should understand that there is no such thing as allopathic anatomy, or allopathic chemistry, or homœopathic physiology. These sciences are founded on immutable laws of life and matter, and change not to suit any pathy or creed. One might just as well speak of homœopathic arithmetic, or allopathic grammar, as to speak of these sciences belonging to any particular school or sect. Science knows no dogma and no creed.

What we want, and what the people want, is that those who prescribe for diseases shall know something about the structure and physiology of the human system, and the pathology of diseases and how to treat them. It certainly is not asking too much to ask this of every man, irrespective of his medical school, who would take the treatment of the sick into his hands. To permit the peripatetic tramp or crank, who has made a failure of everything else in life, to open up an office as "doctor," is an imposition upon the public. Who does not know of more than one such so-called "doctor," whose library consists of a 50 cent pamphlet, that professes to give infallible remedies for every disease, and classifying the medicines by numbers on little boxes or bottles, without giving even a hint of what the packages contain? The self constituted "doctor" perhaps does not know what or how much of anything he is prescribing. As to anatomy, physiology, chemistry, etc., he knows simply nothing. Our laws should be directed especially against such irregular and ignorant impostors. I would therefore suggest that a bill to regulate the practice of medicine, should require that every applicant for license to practice, no matter what his school or creed, should pass a thorough and impartial examination in anatomy, physiology, chemistry, pathology, hygiene, surgery and obstetrics, and that such examination should be based on regular standard scientific text books.

Having passed this examination, if the candidate wishes to practice the regular, the homeopathic, or eclectic systems of medicine, let him be examined in therapeutics and theory and practice of medicine by a board of examiners consisting of physicians, regularly graduated from these systems of medicine and using their own standard text books as the basis of examination.

This would require all practitioners, regardless of school or pathy, to be well informed on the great fundamental branches of medicine, and would shut out the ignoramuses, and probably protect the public as well as it can be protected by statute. No set of physicians would then have any just cause for complaint. It would also be better for the public that every man aspiring to the practice of medicine should have at least a good academic education. I would suggest that the clause providing that a license may be revoked for unprofessional conduct should define the particular kind of unprofessional conduct, on account of differences of opinion, that might arise. I would further suggest that a license may be revoked for drunkenness, frequenting gambling places, or other disreputable resorts; for grossly immoral conduct, procuring or being accessory to procuring abortions; for advertising in any other way than a card stating place of business, office hours, and mere mention of any specialty. With such a law, it seems to me, both the public and the doctors ought to be reasonably well satisfied.

Harmony encampment elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing term: I. Seeritz, C. P.; George Fuller, H. P.; — Cusick, S. W.; Ed. Goldsmith, J. W.; C. W. Louis, scribe; J. L. Smith, treasurer. These officers will not be installed until the third Tuesday in January. The delay is caused by the sickness of the [illegible]ibe.

Ellison encampment meets Tuesday evening.

Harmony encampment is organizing a degree team for their use.

The following Odd Fellows visited Waitsburg lodge at Dayton last week: Dr. R. Bonbs, J. H. [illegible]ugh, W. A. Newman, A. T. Plummer, John [illegible]morest, George Orchard, Louis Wolf, William [illegible]son, H. Hollen and Frank Wait.

Knights of Pythias.

Ivanhoe No. 6 is the banner lodge. It has the largest membership in the state, and they are still [illegible]ding to their number. There will be five candidates for the third rank this evening.

Myrtle No. 2 is now beginning to wake up and will have third rank next Thursday evening.

Germania No. 12 claims the largest membership, but it will fall short some. This is a very fine lodge and has some of the best citizens as members.

Scandia No. — has a number of applications for next week. This lodge has only a limited number of people to draw from, as the Scandinavians generally are hostile to secret societies, but what [illegible]y go into one's members.

Willamette Division No. 2, U. R., has applications for next Sunday evening.

The uniform for Germania division No. 7, U. R., have arrived, and it will be instituted this evening at 8 o'clock in the Armory of Willamette division No. 2.

There were thirty-one officers from the various lodges in attendance at the school of instruction last Sunday, and all the officers are trying to see who will be the best one, as no one will be instructed who does not show his work fully at the examination in any of the Knights of Pythias lodges. It is very gratifying for the D. D. to see such interest taken.

A. O. U. W.

Sons of St. George.

The following communication has been addressed to THE OREGONIAN, and is self-explanatory:

EDITOR OREGONIAN:—A Comical Degree and Comico-Dazzle by the Sons of St. George.—I am supposed to be a quiet and respected citizen of English extraction, and was somewhat surprised on Saturday evening by receiving an invitation to "trot [illegible]en in" to the hall of The Sons of St. George, and see the sober-sided Englishmen enjoying themselves. I reluctantly accepted the invitation and was immediately prostrated with laughter; in fact I took the situation in so seriously that the lodge physician was compelled to administer something of a restorative nature, before I could speak, my sides had split so with laughter.

The lodge was conferring the third degree, and the guests join in the odes with much zest one could have thought that they were in perfection earnestness. As the degree was conferred in public, I thought I should not be giving away anything if I copy some of their odes for the benefit of [illegible]ob of my fellow-countrymen who missed the [illegible]une "Dietch [illegible]s Dog."

And now you have passed the third degree,
You need not look so blue,
There's many more outside the door
Will kiss the floor like you;
And won't you laugh as we have done
To see the brothers go through;
Then let's be jolly and all keep mum,
For there' plenty more to do.

After the initiation, there was a profuse supply of refreshments served, followed by a concert, in which most of the prominent British-American citizens took part. The meeting did not [illegible]ded about [illegible]. M., and was one of the most successful stag parties ever held in Portland.

ALBINA NEWS NOTES.

Christmas Ladder—Bad Dog Bite—Cold Bath—Charity Ball—High School Needed.

The Baptist Mission Sabbath School will have their Christmas tree and exercises this (Monday) evening, at the new Armory hall. A "Christmas Ladder" will be a pleasing feature of the evening.

NEEDS A HIGH SCHOOL.

Albina wants a high school. At the close of the present term a number of pupils will graduate into that school from the Eighth grade "A." It is stated that there is a room unoccupied in the Albina school that could be used to start a high school class in. It certainly would be a great benefit to Albina to be able to give the high school course to pupils and not compel them to go from this city to continue their studies. Besides the extra expenses that would be incurred for schooling and traveling to and from Portland might have a tendency to prevent some from finishing their education that otherwise would do so.

BITTEN BY A DOG.

A little 6-year-old daughter of Mr. J. E. Campbell while playing with a dog, accidentally stepped on its tail, when the animal sprang on the girl and bit her in the face, inflicting a large gash under the right eye. It is thought that nothing serious will follow.

A COLD BATH.

Friday afternoon as Frank Morton was working on a log boom at the Albina sawmill, he accidentally slipped into the river. He made several attempts to get out before he succeeded in doing so, when he managed to catch onto a line and pulled himself ashore, rather chilled with his impromptu bath.

ALL FOR CHARITY.

The Ladies' Union Relief Society will give another grand masquerade ball the last of this month. This society is determined to raise sufficient means to be enabled to build a "Home" that will be a credit to themselves and a blessing to the friendless.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

A. J. Smithson, real estate agent, is preparing to build a two-story building on Helm street on his property.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Manly have returned home after an extended visit of five months to the East and California.

Captain Sherman, of the steamer Cyclone, has sold his residence and property on Abernathy avenue for $2800.

An enormous rotary snow plow has been received at the Terminal yards, so as to be prepared in event of a snow blockade.

The Albina fire company will hold their regular meeting next Saturday evening. All should attend as election of officers will take place.

Several lots on Gaines street owned by Mr. Green are being grained. It is his intention to erect four cottages on this property, each to cost $500.

Mr. E. Smith, night weigh master in the employ of the O. R. & N. Co., has resigned his position and left with his family for Iowa. Mr. S. Hart now fills that position.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall st., N. Y.

Yours for Health & Beauty
Gervaise Graham

MRS. GRAHAM'S Cucumber and Elder Flower Cream

For marvelous power to soften, whiten, bleach and purify the human skin. It is prepared from the milk of almonds, the juice of the cucumber and the purest elder flower water, and is an exquisite toilet preparation, neither greasy nor clammy, and by its purifying and healing qualities it renders the skin beautifully soft, pure and of satin-like texture and bloom, keeping it free from wrinkles and preserving its youthful appearance unto old age. For cleansing the face from comedones or other impurities it is vastly superior to soap and water, vaseline or other preparations. It cures chapped lips or hands and roughened skin, and prevents tan and freckles. Price, $1 per bottle. For sale by druggists. Mrs. Gervaise Graham, 103 Post street, San Francisco, treats ladies at their homes or at her rooms for all defects of face or figure. Send stamp for her book, "How to Be Beautiful."

Proposals for the Construction of Water Works.

Whereas, by resolution passed the common council of the city of LaGrande, Union Co., Ore., December 1st, 1889, the city attorney was authorized and instructed to give notice, by publication, inviting bids for the construction of a complete system of water works for the city of La Grande:

To all whom it may concern, take notice: Proposals and bids will be received by me up to noon on Saturday, January 11, 1890, for the construction of a complete system of water works for said city. All bids are to be sealed, and the plans and specifications are to accompany same, and as an evidence of good faith each bidder is required to furnish a certified check to the sum of $500 to said common council.

Proposals will be received to put in said proposed works for the city, or a franchise will be granted to private parties. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved.

E. W. BARTLETT,
City Attorney of La Grande.
